In Society

Kappa Alpha Theta gave a dinner party last evening at the sorority house.

A large dinner party was given at the Phi Psi house on Sunday. Covers were laid for eighteen.

Miss Zora Fritzgerald of Omaha was the guest of her sister, Miss Pear Fritzgerald at the dormitory over Sunday.

Coach Herstein, of the Haskell Indian football team, was a guest at the Sigma Chi house during his stay in Lincoln to watch the Iowa-Nebraska game.

Miss Psyche Bruner was hostess at an informal party on Saturday evening. Dancing was a feature of the evening. About a dozen young people were present.

The Pi Phis are planning a dance to be given on Thanksgiving eve. The affair will probably be unique in many details. It is said that an interesting feature of the evening will be the presence of the chaperons with each of the young ladies, while the young men will all "bach" it.

Preparations are being made by most of the fraternities and sororities for affairs on or near Thanksgiving. Several of the fraternities will give dances and a number of sororities are already planning unique dinner parties for Thanksgiving eve.

The dance given by the Phi Gamma fraternity on Friday evening at Walsh Hall proved a most enjoyable affair. The hall was prettily decorated in royal purple the fraternity color. About fifty couples were present. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. H. L. Stoddard, advertising manager of the "Daily Californian" of the university of California, was a guest at the Delta Upsilon house on Saturday. Mr. Stoddard is making an extended trip to all the large universities and colleges of the country. He was a welcome visitor at the Daily Nebraskan office.

Invitations are now out for the party and dance to be given at the dormitory Nov. 19th. As the dancing space is limited, each girl has been allowed a certain number of invitations. Mr. Hayes, who now owns the building, has kindly consented to give the girls the use of the dining room for dancing, also to furnish the orchestra and refreshments for the evening's entertainment.

On Saturday evening the annual banquet of the Phi Gammas was held at the Hotel Royal. Twenty-five alumni were present, among whom were Hon. R. E. Ward, Dr. Ross and Dr. Etevenson, president of Bellevue college. The table decorations were especially handsome. Banks of chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece, while clusters of carnations were given to each guest. Covers were laid for forty-five.

The Saturday sales at the Two Fifty Hat store are eye openers for students. It is always New, snappy goods on sale, and always at nearly half price. Something is on every Saturday.

Pyrography Material—Hand Mirrors, Collar and Cuff Boxes, Photograph Boxes, Pipe Racks, Wall Pockets, Match Safes, Burned Leather Novelties at the Lincoln Book Store.

The Famous will give a special discount of 10 per cent to university students on all purchases of millinery, kid gloves, corsets, etc.
