When I am tired
And feeling blue
And lots of work
I have to do
Along the line
Of writing rhyme,
I always find
It saves my time,
And also fills
The space with ease
To jot down lines
About like these.

But when I'm feeling like a king, and can write stuff without a sigh, I spread my lines out long like this, and without winking either eye, Just write and write the livelong day, and at the setting of the sun I've got a grist of stuff to fill and feel that I have earned the mun.

Today, alas,
I'm off the feed,
And can not think
Or write with speed,
All I can do
Is make a bluff
At writing this
Here kind of stuff.
