

Whether in the Football Player

Or in the Clothes you buy, wearing qualities are always admired. . . .

FOR this reason we have again furnished nearly all the uniforms bought this year by the University battalion. As with our uniforms so with all our other merchandise. We aim to give such good values as will make friends and impel patrons to come again. We never had such a stock, in point of size, variety or completeness, for you to select from as we have this fall. Come in and it will be our pleasure to show you.
