ILLINOIS IS BEATEN.

down the field. Capt. Fairweather played an excellent game, and is entitled to great credit. Substitute Quarterback Wheeler put up an excellent game and proved that he is worthy of a varsity position, instead of substitute. The whole Illinois team played football, good, clean football, and deserved to win if efforts and manly playing count for anything. They were the cleanest lot of fellows Nebraska has yet met this season.

Nebraska won the toss and chose the south goal with a slight wind favoring Illinois kicked off over the goal line. Bennie punted out and it was Illinois ball on Nebraska's 48-yard line. Illini could not gain and punted to Bender. After making 8 yards we were held and punted, Illinois getting the ball at the center of the field. By hurdling tactics Illinois worked the ball to our 5-yard line where we held and Bennie punted out of danger. Illinois carried the ball to Nebraska's 35-yard line and tried for goal from placement, but failed. Bennie punted out to Illinois on her 42-yard line. Exchanges of punts and short gains by each team gave the ball, finally, to Illinois on her 42-yard line. A 15-yard penalty forced Illini to punt again, Bender being tackled behind the goal, but crawling over the line and preventing a safety. Bennie fell back of the goal line for a punt, the ball was passed low, the kick blocked and Loneragan fell on the pigskin for a touchdown. Moynihan missed goal, 5-0.

Illinois kicked off over the goal line and secured the ball from punt out, on Nebraska's 35-yard line. Loss of 5 yards gave Nebraska the ball on her 30-yard line and Bender his opportunity. Sending Glen Mason smashing into centre and drawing in the Illini right end, Twister circled right and ran 80 yards for a touchdown. Cy Mason kicked punt out and Bennie kicked goal, 6-5.

Again Illinois kicked off and got the ball from punt out on her 35-yard line. No gain made forced her to punt, the ball going over Bender's head, and being downed on Nebraska's 30-yard line. The ball was advanced short distances, neither side being able to gain either by carrying the ball or punting and the first possession on Nebraska's 50-yard line.

The usual intermission concert was given by the band which, 40 strong, circled the field twice.

Beginning the second half Nebraska kicked off to the Illini at the south goal and regained possession of the ball from punt out on her 5-yard line. Here the beautiful team work which has made Nebraska famous began to operate. Powerfully, irresistibly, Eager, Weller, Glen Mason and Johnson plunged into the yielding Illini line. It was eleven men in every play and not once were we stopped until little Eager, throwing every ounce of his 157 pounds against Illini left tackle, plunged over the goal line. Punt out was missed and no goal resulted. Score 11-6.

Illinois kicked off and the ball was punted back to her on her 50-yard line. Small gains were made by both sides and punts exchanged again; the ball going to Nebraska at centre of the field. Again Nebraska was forced to punt, the ball being downed by Illinois on her 40-yard line. Here the Illini showed their most consistent work, carrying the ball forward by line plunges and attacks directed usually between end and tackle to Nebraska's 7-yard line where Rothgeb broke away for a touchdown. Moynihan again missed goal and Nebraska remained 1 point to the good. Score 11-10.

Johnson kicked off to Illinois who returned to her 35-yard line. Here Denslow replaced Capt. Benedict at right end. Cotton tackled Rothgeb for a 6-yard loss and Illinois punted to Nebraska's 40-yard line. Denslow carried the ball 25 yards on run-round right end. Weller, Eager and Bender carried the ball to Illinois' 33-yard line where Bender tried a kick for goal from placement. The ball fell short and Illinois was downed by Denslow on her 17-yard line. A punt gave us the ball at centre and Bender added more yards to his credit by a beautiful quarterback run round left end, carrying the ball 45 yards to Illinois' 10-yard line, where he was tackled by Rothgeb. Eager made 2 yards, Cotton gained 4 yards, and then Eager again smashed left tackle for his second touchdown. Punt out was missed. Score 16-10 and this ended the scoring. Fenlon replaced Eager at halfback, but no advantage was gained by either side the ball changing hands frequently and the game ended with the ball in Nebraska's possession near the centre of the field.
