Conservatory Notes.

The Patriarch's club was entertained at Director Kimball's residence Wednesday evening.

A number of the School of Music students furnished the musical program at the reception given by the Matinee Musical club at the governor's mansion last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Mortimer Wilson of the conservatory theory department was married at Charlton, Ia., on Wednesday, November 23. He returned with his bride to Lincoln and was present at the Thanksgiving football game. They now reside at 806 South Eleventh street.

Among the new students registered at the School of Music for the second term are: Mrs. Ellen Hunt, Catherine Burky, Virginia Walker, Margaret Pilling, Joseph Keifer, Alice Arnold, Frona and Viola Clark, Margaret Thurston, Nellie Trigg, John Davidson, Sadie Davis and Lulu Culver.

A Pleasant Possibility.

A member of the faculty of the Columbian Medical college at Washington is particularly fond of taking his students unawares in his "quizzes," to one student to whom it would not be uncharitable to call a dullard, the professor said one day:

"What quantity constitutes a dose of ———" giving the technical name of croton oil.

"A teaspoonful," was the answer. The instructor made no comment; and the student soon realized that he had made a mistake. After a quarter of an hour had elapsed, he said:

"Professor, I should like to change my reply to that question."

"I'm afraid it's too late, Mr. Blank," responded the professor, looking at his watch. "Your patent has been dead fourteen minutes."—Collier's for December 3.
