Campus Gleanings

Miss Farnley entertained informally for a few friends on Thursday evening.

Miss Jesse Robinson gave an informal Fudge party on Wednesday evening.

W. C. Ramsey, L. P. Hewitt and John Dorrington are pledged to Phi Delta Phi.

Mr. Will Stevenson, '03, who is principal of the St. Paul public schools, reports a very favorable fall's work.

A "spread" was given on Saturday evening at the Dormitory in honor of Miss Nell Ensor. Eight guests were present.

Miss Ruth Baker entertained the instructors and assistants in the Normal Training course at an informal party at her home last evening.

The Lincoln High School alumnae give a dancing party next Friday evening at Walsh hall. Many university students will be present, especially students of the Freshman class.

A number of the Dormitory girls gave a Fudge party on Thursday evening in honor of Miss A. Furlong. Those present included Misses Ada Winkler, Nell Davey, Stewart Robertson, Farnley, Brush, Douglas, Marvin, Harman.

Some sixty couple tripped the light fantastic at the Freshman hop last night at the Lincoln. The attempts of the Sophs. to postpone several arrivals only added excitement and increased the enjoyment of the evening.

Initiation was held at the Phi Gamma house on Tuesday evening. Following the initiation an elaborate banquet was held. Messrs John Burkett of Lincoln and Clyde Bullock of Norfolk, were made members of the fraternity. Doctors Ross, Batton and Jones assisted in the ceremonies.

The Students' Debating club of the university will meet this evening for the last time before Christmas. A good question is up for discussion and being the last meeting, an unusually large attendance is expected. After the general debate is over there will be an open discussion of the question by the members.

Miss Howell, of the Department of Elocution, will give another of her delightful readings at convocation Monday. She will read "The Lost Word," by Henry VanDyke. Miss Howell has appeared too many times before the student body to need any further notice. This will be a rare opportunity to hear an excellent rendition of an excellent piece.
