The Cadet band, with August Hagenow leading, will play several numbers at the Glee club concert February 16th, at the Oliver theater. The club is rehearsing three times a week, and is getting into excellent shape. No out of town concerts will be given until after the home concert.

Mr. E. P. Tyner, 1904, has resigned his position in the University library to accept a place in American National bank, Kansas City. His place on the library staff has been filled by appointment of Miss Mabel Beattie, a graduate of this university, and who has studied for the past year at the University.

ORGANIZED AGRICULTURE.

All classes have been dismissed at the State Farm this week on account of the program of organized agriculture, which is being given this week. This program commences today and lasts until the 21st. Each day is set aside for the discussion of some particular phase of the agriculture and stock raising problems. There are some very strong speakers on the program, such as Chancellor E. Benj. Andrews, Pres. G. S. Christy, Prof. A. E. Davisson, Dr. A. T. Peters and Hon. Robert W. Furnas. These programs take place at University Farm with the exception of the program this evening which is held in Memorial hall chapel. Every student who has time to attend these will find the meetings very interesting.
