

You've been through this—you know how seldom one finds a collar and a cravat that will go well together. The main reason for this is that the collar is either just too big or just too small.

Quarter Size COLLARS

do not bind either cravat or neck. The original and best are

Campus Gleanings

The Graduate club will be entertained by Mrs. and Miss Frankish at the Woman's Building next Saturday evening.

The Department of Botany sent off all of the Nebraska Algae to an expert in this branch of botany for study and verification.

Several of the botany people read papers this week before the State Horticultural Society which meets at the Farm.

Miss Ruth Rouse of London, representing the World's Student Federation, will be here January 28-30 as a guest of the two christian associations.

In Nebraska hall the plastering fell from the ceiling, of one of the rooms a few days ago while the workmen were moving some heavy logs in the museum. It made a "nasty mess."

Chancellor Andrews' history of the United States has been translated in the Russian language and will soon appear in Russia. The translation is done by Miss Eugenie Hourwich of New York city.

The "IDinner Pall" preacher, who produced such an impression last year will deliver the address at the Men's mass meeting Sunday next. "Who's Queer" is the novel title of the address of this well known speaker, Mr. Geo. L. McNutt.

Thursday evening at 7:30 sharp in the First Presbyterian church Dr. Francis W. Russell of St. Louis will speak to college men. Members of the association and others interested in Christian work are expected to be there. After a brief talk by Dr. Russell, the ladies of the church will serve refreshments.

The Latin club met last Monday evening at the home of Prof. Barber. A constitution was adopted and officers were elected. Miss Ruth Woodsmall was elected president and Mr. Frank Peterson secretary-treasurer. Miss Mabel Sterling and Miss Alma Vanderveer were elected members of the executive committee. At the first meeting of the club Dr. Johnson's latin class will present a latin play. This will be held the second Tuesday in February.

On next Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church there will be a gathering of all student young men interested in Christian work for the purpose of meeting and hearing Dr. F. W. Russell, of St. Louis. Dr. Russell is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska and has been a pastor at Boulder, the seat of the University of Colorado. He is in sympathy with university men and understands their problems. Members of the faculties of the university are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served and the meeting will be entirely informal.

NOTICE.

All write-ups of Seniors and pictures must be in the hands of the committee by Saturday or they will be too late to get in the Senior book.
