DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

A course in the study of the development of dramatic art in representative literature of the drama in English will be given next semester. The first lectures will be upon the dramatic method and literary form in The Marriage of Wit and Science, (licensed in 1569-70), and its probable source. The Play of Wyt and Science by John Redford. Admission by consent of the instructor. Two hours attendance. Two hours credit. Scheduled as Course 50, Adjunct Professor Staff.

NOTICE.

Next semester I shall offer a course for Latin teachers. It will consist partly of lectures on methods and on subject matter that is often overlooked. Part of the time will be devoted to model reading of sub-freshman authors. The class will meet on Mondays at three. One hour credit. The course is 44 on the schedule.

Attention is also called to course 8, open to all students above their freshman year. The course will consist of illustrated lectures upon Roman and Pompeian life. The class will meet on Tuesdays at three. One hour credit.
