Campus Gleanings

Professor Bessey has been elected an honorary member of the University Forest club.

Howard Saxton, Law '02, now practicing law in Omaha, was a campus visitor yesterday.

O. D. Harvey, '03, who is teaching in the Kansas City high schools, was in Lincoln yesterday.

The new report of the regents gives the total value of all the property of the University at $2,353,970.46.

L. E. Troyer, U. of N. '92, is now in Porto Rico, when he holds an important government position at Caomo.

George Tunison and O. E. Costello have announced themselves as candidates for the presidency of the Junior class the coming semester.

On Wednesday Professor Heald read a paper on "Methods of Investigating Plant Diseases" before the Horticultural society. It was well received and attracted a good deal of attention.

The candidates that have announced themselves for the presidency of the Sophomore class are Dwight L. Cramer and Ray Findley. Both these candidates are supported by a good following and the contest promises to be a lively one.

Bids for boxes at the Glee club concert, to be given by the Glee club at the Oliver February 16th, will be received by Manager Dierks until next Wednesday, Jan. 25th. These bids must be sent by letter to Martin H. Dierks, 1630 G street, Lincoln.

The annual Young Men's Christian Association banquet will be held at the Lindell hotel, Friday evening, March 3. An early date was chosen in order to avoid conflicts with other organizations. A member of the international committee and also a member of the state committee will be present at the banquet and give short talks.

The Zoological club will meet Monday evening, January 23, in the Zoological lecture room, M 301. Mr. W. A. Willard will give a short talk on "Recent Studies on the Cell by Rhode" and Mr. R. T. Young will discuss the "Studies on the Polycephalous Hydatids by Kansemaller." Visitors are always welcome to the meeting of the club.

The "Dinner Pall" preacher, Rev. George L. McNutt, will speak Sunday afternoon at the men's mass meeting in the Oliver theater. His subject is "Who's Queer?" Rev. McNutt is a college graduate, who, after the completion of his course worked for several years as a common laborer in order to familiarize himself with their habits of life. He is a man of great personal magnetism and presents his subject in an effective manner.
