Delta Tau Delta will give a dancing party on February 24th.

Robert M. Carroll, '08, of Fremont, is pledged to Delta Tau Delta.

Helen Dunham and Mabel Morris are among the new arrivals at the Dormitory.

The Botany classes are having a hard time in getting rooms for lecture and recitation purposes.

Fifteen Dormitory girls made up a theater party at Maxine Elliot's "Her Own Way" Monday evening.

The class in the study of woods (Botany 34) has been set to meet at 10 o'clock on Wednesdays and Fridays.

On Feb. 17 the Dormitory girls will give an elaborate Valentine party. Invitations will be issued the first of next week.

A fine collection of plants from the Selkirk mountains in British Columbia was received by the University Herbarium a couple of days ago.

The Forest Club will meet Saturday evening, February 4, at 8 p. m. in N 102. An election of officers will be held and Messrs. G. A. Pearson and R. J. Pool will talk on "In the Woods of Minnesota."

C. E. Quinn, '05, who has been acting as one of the assistants in the department of agriculture, has joined the farmers' institute lecture force. He will return for the June commencement to get his sheep-skin.

Professor Bessey is rejoicing over the receipt of six parts of the "Forest Flora of South Australia," the gift of Mr. W. J. Grinstead of York. The plates consist of large folios with many fine colored plates, with description text.

All of the classes in Botany are now assigned to their particular recitation periods. The last to be assigned was Denorology (Botany 41) which for a couple of months will meet only twice a week, namely, at 1 o'clock on Wednesdays and Fridays. After April 1st the class will meet four times a week.

Military drill is evidently becoming too monotonous for some of the boys in the second battalion at the farm. The other day when the command to fire was given one of the cadets actually let loose over the heads of his comrades. The explosion made the walls of Machinery Hall tremble and filled the air with smoke. However, it was only a blank cartridge and nothing but a little excitement and a few demerits followed the discharge.

Roller skate enthusiasts will be interested to learn that the big roller skate meet which is to decide who is the champion lady skater in the state will be held in Lincoln Friday evening, February 3rd. Miss Dora Hellman, Lincoln's lady champion, will race with Mrs. Cuseaden, lady champion of Omaha, and it promises to be a fast and exciting race. As a great number of University students are much interested in the sport of roller skating it is expected that many of them will attend the race.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET.
University men are requested to keep in mind the All-University banquet to be held at the Lindell Friday evening, March 3. This banquet is given under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A. Because of the large number of plates laid, the association is able to secure an unusually reasonable rate. This banquet is not restricted to any class or sect and is open to all University men. One member of the international committee and also of the state committee will be present.

Manifolding and typewriting. See Ed Affolter, check room, basement Ual hall. University rates.
