Prom Visitors.

The Junior Prom, held at the Lincoln Friday night, was one of the best of dances ever given. Among the dancers were an unusually large number of old University people. About eighty five couples attended the dance. Owing to the lateness of all trains entering Lincoln Friday dancing did not begin until a rather late hour, being delayed until all of the out-of-town visitors had arrived. The lateness of beginning cut down the dances somewhat. The refreshments and decorations, while not elaborate, were tasteful, and were as extensive as the committee was warranted in making them.

Quite a large number of old University people were in the city for the Junior Prom. The following were entertained at the various fraternity and sorority houses: Kappa Sigma—M. B. Lewis, Chicago; S. K. Beghtol, Gothenburg. Sigma Chi—Ralph and Frank Raney, F. M. Stowell, Omaha; Ed. Brown, L. B. Stuhr, Grand Island; John Kees, Beatrice. Pi Beta Phi—Grace Montgomery, Plattsmouth. Phi Kappa Psi—A. Hamilton, Omaha. Kappa Kappa Gamma—Jeanette Heinsheimer, Glenwood, Iowa. Kappa Alpha Theta—Jane Douglas, St. Joseph; Faith Hoel, Omaha. Sigma Alpha Epsilon—O. P. Diedoch, South Omaha; Leon Jouvenot, Petersburg; Guy Cowgill, Iowa City; Ed. Funke, Connecticut; Loyd Killian, Wahoo; D. Dufatan, Omaha. Alpha Theta Chi—Guy Cooper, Humboldt. Delta Upsilon—W. B. Bonekemper, Bonesteel, S. D.; R. C. Pollard, Nebraska City; George Omercan, Kearney; J. C. Cooper, Holdrege; C. M. Barr, Neligh.

Masonic Fraternity.

The Daleth chapter of the Acacia fraternity was installed Saturday night at the Masonic Temple. The new fraternity will have active members in both the faculty and the student body. The organization is composed entirely of Masons who are in the University and is the outgrowth of the Masonic Association recently formed here. The fraternity has the following sixteen members: E. H. Barbour, G. R. Chaburn, G. E. Condra, O. J. Fee, N. G. Fitzpatrick, A. G. Jennings, B. E. Moore, H. H. Nicholson, C. K. Payne, L. J. Pepperburg, Roscoe Pound, C. W. N. Poynter, C. R. Weeks, John Westover and Claude H. Wilson. The chapter was installed by Harlan P. Rowe of the University of Michigan. This is the fourth chapter to be organized, the other four being at the University of Kansas, the University of Michigan, and Leland Stanford University. H. W. Emerson of the Kansas chapter was to have been present at the installation ceremony but his train was delayed by the storm.

The following officers were elected: President, Charles R. Weeks; Vice-President, John Westover; secretary, C. K. Payne; treasurer, O. J. Fee; executive board, N. G. Fitzpatrick, L. J. Pepperburg, A. G. Jennings, E. H. Barbour and Roscoe Pound.

A banquet was held at the close of the meeting.

The law student committee, appointed last week to devise some means of bettering the condition of the law college, held two secret meetings yesterday and discussed plans of action. It is reported that the lawyers have decided upon a definite outline of procedure but they have so far refused to make public anything in regard to the meetings yesterday.

Charlie Miller, Bill Miller, John Dudgeon, and G. L. Hewitt were initiated into the Kappa Sigma fraternity Saturday night. The fraternity held a banquet at the Lincoln Hotel last night.

Faculty May Play.

Dr. Clapp has been sending out letters to different members of the University faculty expatiating upon the advantage of a systematic course in basketball, and urging each and every one of them to avail themselves of this chance to obtain a little exercise these sultry days when weak mortal is inclined to lie around the shady side of a luxurious office in University hall and jolly the fair Freshman who went to the Prom and forgot to make up her note-book. Last year about fifteen members of the faculty played basketball three nights a week during the winter season and after long and hard practice even played some half dozen games with the Wesleyan and high school rod-wielders. There is no apparent reason why as successful a team could not be turned out again this year, excepting that Apollo Congdon is not present to inspire his team mates with divine ability.

At first Dr. Clapp met with an unexpected obstacle in the wide-spread disinclination on the part of the profs to place themselves in any position where they would be forced to listen to Engberg's Swedish jokes on the "Two stones with one bird" order. He attempted to persuade the humorous prof. to discover something the matter with his heart so he could not play, but unsuccessfully. Then he assured the others desirous of playing that the rules of the game would be suspended immediately upon the springing of any jokes by Prof. Engberg, and a favorable response was the immediate result.

The wise heads will practice at the same time as last year, from five to six o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, in the Chapel, it being hoped that the sanctity of that hall will prevent all outbursts of profanity inspired by the elusive basket.
