Editorial Remarks

Three Cheers.

"The resolve of the sorority girls of Nebraska not to attend any dance given on a school night was not an empty one. Recently the Men's Glee Club of the University gave a concert, and after the performance it was announced that an informal dance would be given. The girls got together and agreed to support the concert with all their accustomed enthusiasm, but a ban was placed on the dance.

"The Nebraska girls deserve praise for their courage. If men of a University have not the foresight to interpret the sentiment of the women on matters of this sort and act accordingly it is just as well to bring them to an understanding by some such heroic means.

"This year at Washington has been remarkably free from social stunts on study nights, and it is hoped it will continue so. One thing is sure, Washington girls are composed of the same metal as the Nebraska co-eds and if the time ever comes when it will be necessary to quell the sterner sex on a matter of this sort, our girls will do it."—The Pacific Wave, University of Washington.

"Noch Einmal."

"In the minds of a majority of the students of the University of Kansas, there is little doubt but that athletic relations should be resumed with Nebraska. It is important, not only for our own welfare and the promotion of athletics here, but for the promotion of athletics in this section of the United States. Nebraska, we understand, is as willing as Kansas, and the only question now is—Who will bear the flag and head the peace commission?"—The Kansan.

The question "Resolved, That military drill as in vogue at the University of Nebraska, is un-American," which the Debating club has chosen to debate Saturday night has aroused a good deal of interest, so much, in fact, that the club will probably make this debate more public than usual, and may hold it in the chapel which will be none too small to accommodate those who have already expressed their interest. It is possible, too, that other speakers will be chosen, and the question, which is of keen interest to everybody connected with the University, will be probed to the bottom.

Student Recital.

The university school of music will give students' recital this evening at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall. The public is cordially invited. The program will be as follows:

- Bach—Prelude and Fugue, D major (W. T. C.)—Mary Ward.
- Gluck—Sgambati—Melodie, D minor; MacDowell, Czardas, A minor, op. 24—Louisa Creekpaum.
- Fielitz—Silent Woe, Sprays of Roses, Secret Greetings, Child Voices, Dreams of Roaming, Anathema, from "Elliland Cycle"—Chas. Tulleys.
- Godard—Concerto, A minor; andante, allegro vivace—Mabel Marsh. (Orchestral parts on second piano, Mrs. Will Owen Jones.)
- Chopin—Polonaise, op. 40, No. 1—Grace McWhinney.
- Schumann—I Murmur Not; Bartlett, A Dream—Frank Hudson.
- Thomas—Time's Garden—Mrs. Addie Jennings.
- Liszt—Etude, D flat major—Ethel Syford.
- Schubert—Impromptu, B flat—Jessie Emerick.
- Arensky—Fantasie, E minor, op. 48—Claire Canom. (Orchestral parts on second piano, Mr. Eames.)
- MacDowell—The Robin Sings in the Apple Tree—Grace Mussetter.
- Rotoli—The Dying Flower; Cowen, Swallows—Lou Young.
- Mozart—Double concerto, E flat major; andante, Dondo (allegro)—Nellie Trigg, Ethel McBeath.

"Nothing but one continual round of pleasure" is the order of the evening at the Seventh Annual Banquet of the University Young Men's Christian Association to be held at the Lindell hotel next Friday evening at seven-forty-five. Out of town speakers will be J. P. Bailey of Omaha, Chas. D. Hurrey of Chicago, and Lucian J. Marsh of Grand Island. Others who will speak are Dean Henry B. Ward and Mr. J. R. Bender. No matters of business will be presented and the evening will be given over to a rousing good time. Not one member of the association should be absent on this occasion, and others who are in any way interested are cordially invited to attend. Those who are planning on being there should bear in mind that the banquet will begin promptly at the time advertised.

Dramatics Tomorrow.

On Thursday night in the chapel will be given "My Lord in Livery," by members of the Dramatic Club. The cast correct is as follows:

- Lord Thirlmere.....Harry Melick
 - Spiggott.....Homer Hunt
 - Sybil.....Bess Smith
 - Laura.....Kathleen Lindermann
 - Rose.....Ethel Haynes
 - Hopkins.....G. Ward Cheney
- A nominal admission of 10c will be charged.

This is the first play given by the University Dramatic Club and should attract a good crowd.

Stanford University and Waseda University of Japan, will meet on the basketball diamond the latter part of March. This University won the championship of Japan recently. Two games are to be played with Stanford and a series of games with other schools will probably be arranged by the Japs.

The Forest club of the University will meet Saturday night, March 4. An excellent program has been arranged by the program committee and a good attendance is expected. Professor R. H. Wolcott, of the Department of Zoology, and Professor Bruner, of the Department of Entomology, will talk on "Birds and Insects in the Forest."
