

You've been through this—you know how seldom one finds a collar and a cravat that will go well together. The main reason for this is that the collar is either just too big or just too small.

Campus Gleanings

The English club of the University will meet this evening with Miss Richardson, 1315 K street.

The meeting of the Academy baseball men announced for yesterday morning at chapel time was postponed until Monday morning.

Mr. John D. Rice, '04, was a campus visitor yesterday. Mr. Rice was editor-in-chief of the Daily Nebraskan last year and is now reporting on the World-Herald.

Mr. L. A. Cutshall, '05, left Tuesday morning for Chicago to accept a position with the Automatic Electric Co. of that city. Mr. Cutshall received his degree in the Department of Electrical Engineering at the mid-winter commencement.

Yesterday Professor Bessey sent off his paper on the "Grasses of Nebraska" for publication in the Report of the State Board of Agriculture. It includes notices of one hundred and fifty natural and fifty introduced species. This is the most complete list ever made of the grasses of the state.

The Percheron Registry Company of Columbus Ohio, has offered a prize of $25.00 for the best essay of 1,000 words or the Percheron horse. The contest is open to all four-year agricultural students in any college in the United States. The contest closes on May 1 of this year. The subject may be treated from any point of view the writer chooses.

Mr. Frank G. Bruner, former student in psychology, is announced to appear before the New York City Academy of Science, when he will give an account of his studies among primitive people at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. Mr. Bruner spent his entire time with these people taking measurements of the physical characteristics, etc., and testing the development and acuteness of the senses of sight and hearing. This is probably the most painstaking and extensive scientific study that has been made upon the philippino people.

Prof. Fogg served as a judge at the Kansas State Oratorical contest held at Wichita, March 3. The contest was between representatives of nine colleges of Kansas—Windfield, Washburn, Baker, Ottumwa, Emporia, Fairmont, Midland, Salina and Southwestern Kansas College. W. E. Broadie of Southwestern Kansas College won first place in the contest. The subject of his oration was "The White Man's Burden." The other judges were President C. B. Dabney of Cincinnati University and Prof. Towne of Carleton College, Minnesota.

A petition has been circulated among agricultural students and faculty members requesting the Lincoln Traction company to change the "State Farm" signs on the cars to "U. of N. Agricultural School." It is needless to say that it was signed by everybody who was given the opportunity. The sign as it now reads seems to be misleading as many visitors who come to the school have not the least idea of the nature of the institution. A change in the wording would make it clear to the uninformed that the university embraces more than the group of buildings on the main campus and that cars will take him to the other part if he wishes to see it.

Mr. Clark Streeter, chief chemist for Norfolk Sugar Refining Co. called on Mr. Dales recently while on a trip east but did not say whether or not he would move to LaMar Colo., with the Norfolk company which has recently located at that place.

What in the world to give a friend?
Yalemen know and the New Haven Union says: "The question of what in the world to give a friend is solved by which is alike suitable for the collegian of the past, for the student of the present, and for the boy (or girl) with hopes; also for the music-loving sister and a fellow's best girl."
SONGS OF ALL THE COLLEGES
