Campus Gleanings

C. A. Jenson read a paper on "Wheat Diseases" Thursday to the class in Plant Pathology.

Dr. Pillsbury will address the meeting of the Medical Society, to be held today, in M 301 on "Some Typhoid Epidemics."

A. E. Sheldon, curator of the State Historical Society is out on a trip to Crete and Wilbur to look up an old collection of newspapers that date back into the seventies.

E. E. Blackman, state archeologist, is preparing a report of the last two years' work, by request of ex-Governor Furnas. Mr. Blackman goes to Ruby, Neb., soon to investigate the Ruby Indian Mound.

The Academy girls basketball team will play a game with the city Y. W. C. A. team this evening in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium, corner of 12th and M streets. An interesting game and a good crowd is expected. Fifteen cents admission will be charged.

Professor Bessey is to deliver the commencement address at the graduating exercises of the Weeping Water High School in the latter part of May. He will do some botanizing about the town while there, as it is one of the best regions for botanizing in the state. Mr. Pool of the Forestry class, expects to accompany him.

The officers of the Nebraska alumni association have lately become more actively interested than ever in alumni matters. It has been suggested that the association get up revised lists and co-operate with the Nebraskan in publishing these from time to time until a complete list shall be printed. J. A. Barrett, secretary and treasurer of the alumni association, will soon begin this work.

Collier's, for March 18th, commenting upon the Stanford millions, closes with the following tribute to Mrs. Stanford's self-sacrifice:

"Thus one of the richest women in the world voluntarily reduced herself to the position of a person of modest means. But in doing so she won a distinction all her own. There are plenty of rich women, but there is none, nor any man either, who has deliberately given to others a fortune comparable with that sacrificed by Mrs. Stanford."

In Other Colleges

The University of Idaho and Utah recently held a joint debate on the question, "Should every eligible voter be compelled to go to the polls?"

Within the last few years a number of Filipino students have entered the University of Indiana, where they are showing great susceptibility to flirtation with the co-eds. This has alarmed the good people of the state; consequently, a bill will be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting intermarriage with Filipinos of more than one-eighth blood. —Ex.

The Triangular Debating League, embracing the three universities, Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania, have arranged for joint contests for 1906.

All three universities are enthusiastic over the new league system. The success of the plan will doubtless be followed by its adoption in other intercollegiate debating leagues. The Harvard-Yale-Princeton league and Dartmouth - Brown - Williams league have already announced their intention to adopt the plan, which is considered a distinct improvement over all previous methods of conducting intercollegiate debates.
