SOMBRERO BOARD

Several Sisters from the St. Mary's Academy of Omaha, visited the Department of Botany on Tuesday, and consulted with the different professors of the department in regard to methods of teaching botany in the secondary school.

The editors of the Morton History company have recently located the family of Augustus H. Harvey who was the first secretary of the University. He was one of the men who helped lay out the site of the city of Lincoln, the Capitol and University sites.

The High School Inspector, Professor Hodgman, finished the inspection of all the city schools on the Union Pacific road as far west as Cheyenne, Wyoming. This leaves the northeast counties of the state and a few other scattering schools still to be inspected. The inspector expects to complete the work of the year's inspection by the middle of May.
