'Varsity Puts Up Hard Fight But Lacks Practice.

Morse Holds the Professionals Down to Six Hits.

The Chicago Americans and the 'Varsity crossed bats yesterday afternoon on the University campus. The game was very close and hotly contested, but the final score gave victory to the Chicago team. The work of the 'Varsity was of a high order and much improved over their work in the Monday game. The men were in their places at all times and from the pace given yesterday afternoon Omaha will have to play some if they carry away victory from Lincoln this year.

The White Sox team is a fast aggregation of player and know the game from beginning to end. One of the most spectacular plays of the game was a catch by Doherty in right field. This player caught the ball about three feet above the ground while running full speed. The pitching of both Doherty and Morrissey was of first class order, and both had excellent control. Clarke at third and Donohoe at first, did great work and were exceptionally good at throwing to bases.

The work of Nebraska's battery, Morse and Bender, is without criticism. Morse surely gave to the baseball fans a fine exhibition of pitching. He had good control at all times and fielded his position without an error. Bender made the fans' hearts glad with the way he played backstop, and his batting was good as he found Doherty for a home run. This was the longest hit of the game and was responsible for two of the tallies, bringing Reddick in. The other men played their positions well, keeping their eye on the ball, and were into every play.

The crowd showed their appreciation of the way the 'Varsity played, both in their attendance and constant cheering and applauding good plays.

CHRISTIANS WIN.

Last Game of Series 31 to 28-- Both Teams Play Fast Ball.

Omaha Y. M. C. A. and the 'Varsity lined up against each other last evening for the fourth game this season. Omaha was again successful and won the last game by a score of 31 to 28. This makes Omaha the victor in three out of the four games. Both of the teams were in the pink of condition and played hard ball.

In the first half the game was decidedly in favor of the team from the metropolis. The score stood 10 to 3 at one time but the 'Varsity took a brace and run the score up to ten to twelve. After this the Christians again took the lead and ran the score up to 17 to 12 and thus the first half ended.

The second half was as much in favor of the 'Varsity as the first half had been for Omaha. The boys overcame the difference in score and thus the game progressed until the 'Varsity scored two goals from the foul line. But Omaha took a wonderful brace at the end of the game and scored five points. This made the score 31 to 28 in their favor or the score of the game.

The playing of both teams was very fast, so fast that rough play was the result and many fouls were called. The officials had their eyes with them for fouls and found them. The number of fouls called in last night's game exceeded the number ever before called in the Armory.

The crowd was small but appreciative and the game between the Y. M. C. A. Juniors and the Parochial school furnished much amusement for it.

The lineup was as follows:

Omaha Y. M. C. A.	Nebraska.
GUARDS.
Willard	Bell
Harris	Barruss
CENTER.
Hansen	Moser
FORWARDS.
Willard	Krake
Clark	Hagensick

Final Try-out.

Tonight at the "Students' Debating Club occurs the final tryout from which the three men who are to represent the club in the Doane Debate will be chosen.

The six contestants for the places have been working hard and will without doubt, present good arguments.

F. M. Hunter and G. A. Lee, both of debating fame will be on hand to select the team. The other judge has not yet been decided upon. A good crowd should be out to show their appreciation of the hard work the boys have been doing.

REPUBLICAN BANQUET.

University Club Holds Jolly-up at Capital Hotel.

Last night the University Republican Club gave a rally and smoker at the Capital Hotel. About two hundred young Republicans were present and spirit and enthusiasm was not lacking to make the occasion a decided success. The rooms were effectively decorated with flags and festoons of scarlet and cream. The program consisted of music and toasts during which cigars were generously distributed among those who indulged in the smoke.

The program opened with a selection by the Republican Negro Quartet which also furnished music between the toasts. Mr. F. D. Ryan, Law '05, presided as toastmaster and introduced the following who responded to toasts:

- "The University"—J. B. Davidson.
- "The Club"—M. S. Brown.
- "Choosing Your Party"—C. R. Weeks.
- "Roosevelt, Our President"—R. A. Van Orsdale.
- "Lincoln, the Students' Home"—H. G. Wellensick.
- "University Politics"—J. K. Morrison.
- "The Student and Politics"—A. G. A. Nelson.
- "Scoring in Politics"—Frank Beers.
- "Young Men in Politics"—Richard Smith.

Several guests of honor were present including Judge Holmes, Judge Cosgraves and Assistant City Attorney D. J. Flaherty, who responded to toasts. Judge Holmes spoke on the duties of the young voter and his influence in politics. He laid special emphasis upon the importance of University men standing for the best and highest in politics and wielding a mighty influence to secure pure politics.

Judge Cosgrave related some interesting personal experiences in his many years of political life.

Assistant City Attorney Flaherty spoke of the local political situation in Lincoln, also emphasizing the responsibility of the young man in politics.

ARE ON THE FENCE

Seniors and Juniors Contend for Advertising Space.

Green and Red Paint Very Much in Evidence.

What, but for the conspicuous absence of the Seniors, would have been a most interesting class scrap, passed off very quietly yesterday morning at Convocation time with a few yells and much red paint. People journeying Universityward yesterday morning were greeted, upon entering the campus, with several large green '05's and the bold assertion that the fence upon which the numerals were painted was the property of 1905. Standing out alone, unguarded, making good their claims by their mere presence the boasts of '05 offered an affront to '06 which could not be brooked. Small knots of Juniors tied themselves up spontaneously into active groups intent upon removing the insulting characters or know the reason why, and their intent was fulfilled. Two hours after the first Junior spied '05's numerals the red of '06 glared angrily and triumphantly from the same, one time spotless fence, and by clever manipulation '05 had been made to look like five cents.

The new fence being erected about the site of the Administration Building offered a splendid background on which to display class numerals and the Seniors were first to take advantage of this. How the green of the Seniors came there first none of that class seemed to know. It was even hinted that the work might have been done by some under-classmen with malice aforethought toward their superiors. Not stopping to inquire into the source, however, the Juniors immediately made tracks for the paint shop, and returning to the campus with the necessary paraphernalia, proceeded to make tracks on the fence and to do things to the Senior numerals.

Their work was speedily done for they were unhindered, the Seniors, who seemed to be quite satisfied with having been first on the fence, even though their stay on the coveted spot was of short duration.

Although there are still a few bare spots, the attention paid by the upper classes to the new fence has greatly improved its appearance, as well as adding an abject of interest, keen if temporary, to the campus.

Professor Barbour, of the Department of Geology, left Wednesday for Beatrice to deliver two lectures before the meeting of the Northwestern Nebraska Educational Association which is in session at that place. He spoke Wednesday evening on the World's Fair at St. Louis, and gave a second talk Thursday morning on "The Great Plains."
