Next Sunday Miss Estelle Paddock, Y. W. C. A. secretary for Central China, will visit the Association. Miss Paddock, who has been the successor of Miss Ruth Paxson in State work in Iowa, is sent by the World's Student Christian Federation and will be the speaker at two meetings next Sunday. At 9 o'clock she will address all University students, both men and women, in the Chapel and at 3 o'clock will speak in the same place to the Y. W.'s at their regular Sunday afternoon meeting.

The Big Cabinet was entertained Friday evening by Miss Withers at her home, 1625 G street. A dainty supper was served and after an hour devoted to a general good time, the regular meeting was held at which the report of last month's work was given by the chairman and sub-chairman of the various committees and the work for the next month planned out.
