"Will you kindly give us the names of two or three of your students who have canvassed and would be suitable general agents for us? We want all students who canvass this summer to advertise our paper at the same time in a way that will not only not interfere with, but will actually help, their other work.

"An early reply in the enclosed stamped envelope will greatly oblige. Yours respectfully,

"Minneapolis, Minn."

Without a statute to aid him, with no "constitutional authority," it is said, and with scarcely a word from the silent man who sits in the executive chair at the Missouri capital, the lobby is vanquished. The reason of it all is in the man Folk. Not a railroad pass has been seen in Jefferson City since "Joe" Folk came to town—and none is sought by the members and clerks of the legislature. Not a whisper of bribery or corruption has been heard. There is none. Joseph W. Folk has made boodling a dangerous profession in Missouri. The politicians fear him, and they fear him because the people love him—because public opinion is back of him in all that he says and does, and in banishing the corrupt lobby from Missouri, Governor Folk has vindicated the omnipotent power of a righteous public opinion.—Collier's, April 8.
