Good Looking Clothing FOR YOUNG MEN

What we mean by young men is any man from 18 up to the time he ceases to care about his personal appearance. Our spring clothes are full of good looks and sparkle. They are made from richest fabrics and are made by expert workmen who stitch them full of style. Our single and double breasted styles for the season have made us many new friends. They are different from single and double breasted styles you will see elsewhere. We have had them made to be different—just a little more advanced.

THE PRICES ARE

$10, $12.50, $15, $18, $20, and up to $30.

Alumni

Many of the University alumni will teach in the summer schools held over the State this summer. The following is a list of the junior normal faculty and indicates the present position that the instructors holds and the city in which they will teach:

ALLIANCE—A. H. Shaley, superintendent at Friend, and C. S. Jones, principal at Crawford.

HOLDREGE—S. H. Thompson, superintendent at Holdrege, E. E. Moyee, superintendent at Fairmont, and Anna Tibbetts, principal of the Capital school of Lincoln.

McCOOK—G. H. Thomas, superintendent at McCook, C. M. Barr, superintendent at Neligh, and Eva O'Sullivan, science teacher in the South Omaha High School.

NORTH PLATTE—S. H. Martin, superintendent of the St. Paul schools.

Miss Elizabeth Hawxby, '04, is teaching with success at York, Nebraska.

Miss Cora M. Walker is doing good work as principal of the Hartington High School.

Miss Addie Reynoldson and Miss Nellie Athen are teaching at Albion, Nebraska.

Miss Mary E. Roddy, '04, has recently accepted a position in the high school at Atkinson, Neb.

Joanne Hagey '98 has recently been re-elected to the position of librarian at the Lincoln Public Library.

Miss Florence M. Richardson '02 has been elected to a fellowship in philosophy at the University of Chicago.

Miss May G. Edholm, '04, has an excellent position as instructor in physical education in the University of Chicago.

George E. Spear, B. Sc. '00, M. D. '03 was appointed on the medical board of the Hastings Hospital for the Insane May 1st, and is now at Hastings engaged in that work.

Among the graduates who are teaching in Wyoming are Miss Agnes R. Herbert, '04, at Robertson, Wyo., Miss Susie Kinyon, at Cody, and Miss Edna E. Griffith, at Buffalo, Wyo.

A number of last year's graduates are teaching in Minnesota. Miss Mildred Clark is teaching Latin and German in the Luverne High School; Miss Ethel M. Masters, '02, is principal of the High School at Winthrop, Minn.

C. W. Jones, '00, holds the position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools at Seattle, Wash. Miss Elva Dempster, '00, is instructor in English in the High School at the same place.

TOURIST CARS POPULAR.

The idea that an inferior class of people patronize the tourist sleepers is an error. On many trips only the best class of travelers are found. They are merely men and women of good sense who would rather travel to California in this manner and save a snug sum of money to be used elsewhere. It is beginning to be understood that it is by no means necessary for the traveler to spend a large sum of money in order to enjoy a trip to the Pacific Coast.

If you cross the continent in one of the tourist sleepers of the Union Pacific you will enjoy your trip and save considerable money. Inquire of E. B. Slosson, Gen'l Agent.
