Editorial Remarks

Not Dead.

The spirit of Sneak day past, not dead but revived and brimming over, permeated every moment of the Seniors' absence from Lincoln yesterday.
It was good to get together as a class to become acquainted with one's own classmates; to breathe the fresh spring air; to run, to shout, to laugh from the pure joy of living.

The Seniors who did not go missed something worth while.

The trip to Millford will be remembered by those who participated as one of the brightest spots in their University career.

Not Quarantined.

In spite of the statement of a local paper to the contrary, the members of the Phi Kappa Psi, residing at the fraternity house are not quarantined.
There was a slight smallpox scare, but the members were not affected and the health officer took every precaution to avoid the scattering of the disease.

H. G. Shedd, who recently resigned the position of University Registrar, will make a trip to Portland, Ore., in the interest of the Nebraska exhibit at the coming exposition and will then go to Canada. He has accepted a position with the Canadian Land company, which is doing quite an extensive business handling Canadian wheat land. Mr. Peter Jenson, well known in Nebraska as a former member of the Nebraska Legislature, and former commissioner to Paris, is the American representative for the company and it was largely due to his influence that Mr. Shedd was offered and accepted the position.

Perishing Rifles.

The Perishing Rifles will have their last meeting and drill down for the medal next Thursday, May 18. It is desired that all members be present as this will also be the last business meeting of the year, and some business of importance will be transacted.

There are a few men whose applications were accepted and published to the battalion, but who have never reported for drill. There are also several men who have not paid their dues and fines. Unless satisfactory explanation can be given to the officers of the company none of the above will be permitted to participate in the business of the company next year. All men on the company roll who have neither reported regularly for drill, nor paid dues and fine, nor submitted satisfactory explanations will be recommended to be dropped from the roll "not in good standing."

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

The Bg Cabinet was entertained last Friday evening by Miss Zimmer at her home, 1605 K street. An elegant supper was served by Mrs. Zimmer, after which the chairmen gave the reports of the work of their committees for the past month and discussed plans for the future.

A large audience gathered at St.
Paul's Church Sunday afternoon to hear the Hon. W. J. Bryan speak on "The Prince of Peace." The meeting was under the auspices of the City and University associations. The music was in charge of the chorus under the leadership of Mrs. Raymond.
Mr. Cornell gave a trombone solo.

The Senior girls still have charge of the noon meetings. The leaders for the week are:

- Monday—Minnie Petraschete.
- Tuesday—Annie Moore.
- Wednesday—Ruth Wordsmall.
- Thursday—Etta Ayer.
- Friday—Miss Jewell.

The Student Volunteers are preparing to conduct the last Sunday meeting of the year, May 28. This organization received three new members last month and has now thirteen members in all; eight girls and five men.

Special Meeting Tonight.

Most of the time last Saturday night was spent in discussing a set of resolutions introduced by members of the club. The resolutions were directed against the recent ruling of the Board of Regents in regard to powers and duties of the new Debating Board, and all phases of it well threshed out.
The call for the orders of the day prevented the resolutions from coming to a vote. A special business meeting has been called on petition of five members, for Wednesday, May 17, 8 p. m. in Union Hall. The resolutions have been somewhat modified and will again be presented. All members are urged to be present. The club, during the last term has grown in membership, spirit and effectiveness of work, and when an issue is up, the decision of which would affect the progress of the club, it is expected that the meeting will be well attended.
