FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1912

OUR SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP.

The coming basketball games with Kansas offer an excellent opportunity for the student body to exhibit that much-talked-of characteristic—school spirit. These are the final games of an unusually successful season, a season in which the Cornhusker five has won every game, except that one with Minnesota. Our team stands undisputed champion of the northern division, and in all probability, champion of the conference.

Assuming that we win one or both of the present series, Nebraska will have had to her credit TWO championship teams in one year. This is a record seldom attained by a school and should be fully appreciated by its student body.

The aforesaid appreciation can be shown in only one way—by a record-breaking attendance at the games. The first game, tonight, begins at 8:15. The usually tiresome period between halves is to be consumed by a short band concert, and several "stunts" partaking of the nature of "sailor's fights" and the like; immediately following the game the genial "Dog" is planning to hold an informal dance in the chapel. Such a round of continual pleasure should draw even the most indifferent from their firesides, and instill into them the spirit which should prevail in the presence of a school's second championship team of the year.

Saturday's game is to be called at 7:30 SHARP in order not to conflict with the University night program. The doors of the Temple theatre will not be opened until 8:30, so that it is up to everyone to eat a hurried supper and reach the armory by 7:00.

THAT LIST OF SUBSCRIBERS.

In view of the numerous complaints which greeted yesterday's issue of the paper, wherein the list of those who had failed to renew their subscriptions was published, it would seem that an explanation was forthcoming.

This list was not published with malicious intent, nor with the idea of reproving those who saw fit to stop their subscription, but rather for the benefit of the business department. Since the radical change in the subscription list, due to the efforts of Tag Day, more or less confusion has prevailed in the circulation department. It was with a view to allaying this confusion that the list was published.

Many have been calling at Station

A for papers whose names do not appear on the present subscription list. Owing to a shortage in copies this has proved rather embarrassing for the management, as well as for the real subscribers. Furthermore, many of the Tag Day solicitors have not yet turned in their receipt books, so that no accurate figures can be compiled.

For these reasons the list was published.

Anyone whose name does not belong in it is asked to report to the "Rag" office at his earliest convenience, when the mistake will be corrected.

Weber Sultorium, 1100 O St.

Students are especially invited to attend the lecture on "Why Things Happen to Happen," tonight at 8:00 o'clock in Brownell hall, 137 South Eleventh street, by Ernest Untermann, student, author, translator, lecturer, sailor, traveler, doctor of philosophy and world-citizen. Mr. Untermann is a native of Germany, studied at the University of Berlin, where he received his degree. He has translated many of the best German works on Socialism, including "Capital," by Marx, and is himself the author of various books in the English language. Mr. Untermann comes before the public equipped with a rare fund of knowledge on his subject. He has been a member of the Socialist party in America since its formation, and his scholarly familiarity with other schools of philosophy makes him especially well qualified to compare and contrast the Socialist point of view. Admission, 25 cents, and a 25-cent paper or book on Socialism Free. —Adv.
