

TELLS OF SUMMER SCHOOL

UNIVERSITY JOURNAL MAKES OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF VARIETY OF SUBJECTS.

The February University Journal, which has been in press for the last week, was put in circulation the first of the week. It contains the official announcement of the courses offered at the summer session and for the most part is devoted to that subject.

From the announcements in the paper, the session this summer will be better and more courses will be offered than ever before. Twenty-five departments will offer courses and for the student who wishes to make up work, the graduate student who is fulfilling his residence requirements, and the school teacher who takes advantage of the summer to work ahead, exceptional opportunities are offered in a variety of subjects.

For undergraduates of the University the courses have been so arranged that a maximum of nine hours can be gained. More courses are available than have been before. Graduates will find work which will apply for their master's degrees. For teachers, especially strong courses have been arranged. One hundred free scholarships are open to them if they wish to qualify for the work.

Registration days will be June 14-15, and classes will begin Monday, June 17, continuing till August 9. From June 10 to 14 will be held the annual school of superintendence, to which principals and superintendents from all over the state will come.

STUDENTS DISPLAY ECLAT

ELITE VISIT DANCING ACADEMY IN BALL ROOM COSTUME.

"One of Lincoln's most popular dancing academies" was recently graced by the presence of several of the University's social elite. They appeared in dress suits and party gowns and astonished the "natives" by the grandeur of their presence and the perfect ease with which they received the open-mouthed wonder which greeted them.

Although they did not indulge in the "popular" forms of dancing, they seemed to be perfectly at home, and were even able to show the most accomplished a few "steps" in the way of the "Boston" and the like.

This merely goes to prove that the college student is impervious to his surroundings, that the atmosphere affects him little or no, and that he can conduct himself with credit in any strata of society.

Books Are Count's Gift.

Two books, one his own work, the other his translation into English, have been received by Chancellor Avery of the University from Count Luetzow, Bohemian nobleman, who visited in Lincoln at the Chancellor's home the first of last month. The books are the "History of Bohemia," by the count, and a translation of "The Labyrinth of the World," by Komenasky, Bohemia's great educator.

The count has now completed his tour of this country and yesterday sailed from New York for Europe.

All students should visit the "College Inn Barber Shop at 127 North 12th. S. L. Chaplin, Prop.
