

GERMAN COMEDY PRESENTED

HUMOROUS ONE-ACT. PLAY IS GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF SCHAUSPIELER.

An unusually large number of German students Wednesday evening availed themselves of the opportunity to hear some genuine "Dutch" gossip, the hall and hearty sort of gossip which is so characteristic of the Germans. The attraction offered was a one-act comedy, entitled "Der Kaf-feeklatsch."

In it three women had engagements to take dinner with Frau Mueller. On arrival they immediately plunged into a lively discussion of the latest news, and the climax was reached when two of the women fainted. The cast follows:

Frau Mueller, Ella Morrison; Frau Schulze, Ruth Reinhardt; Frau Lehmann, Lucy Hart; Frau Mutiker, Mar-jorie Denton.

"Minna von Barnhelm" will be presented April 19. Work on this, the big German dramatic event of the year, is well under way and is rapidly approaching the desired state of perfection. General rehearsals are being held two evenings a week and separate scenes at various hours throughout the week.

Cadets Do Not Wear Regulation Army Garb, Anyway.

Captain Yates says that there is no danger of the cadets being forced to stop wearing the regulation army uniform, because they do not, and never have worn the regulation army uniform. Ambiguous as this may seem, it is nevertheless true, for the uniform worn by the cadets is especially marked so that it will not be mistaken for a regulation uniform. Movements are being made to prevent the copying of the army uniform by organizations, and although Nebraska has no law prohibiting it, the University has always been in favor of the protective movement. To be sure, the color is the same, but bands of the school colors—red on the campus, green at the Farm—have been placed on the caps, shoulder straps and sleeves, so that the uniforms are distinctive and should not be mistaken for the regulation uniform.

No "M's" at Minnesota.

The University of Minnesota has re-fused to grant "M's" to the members of the football team because of dam-ages done to the Northwestern train which took them to the Wisconsin game. The railroad company has submitted a bill for damages amount-ing to $48 and the letters will not be granted until someone admits his guilt and the debt is paid.

Uniforms Necessary at Hop.

Purdue is to have a military hop at which only cadets in uniform will be admitted.
