PAYS TRIBUTE TO ANDERSON.

Des Moines Newspaper Speaks Favorably of Cornhusker Captain.

In speaking of Wilson of Coe, Davenport of Chicago and Anderson of Nebraska as three of the best athletes in competition in the United States this spring, the Des Moines Register and Leader has the following to say of Nebraska's track captain:

"Anderson of Nebraska sprung into fame last year when he galloped off the mile in 4:26. He is in better condition this year and it is said that he is going to train for a place on the Olympic team. Anderson trimmed Johnson of Missouri in the Missouri Valley meet. A week later Johnson won the event at the Chicago conference meet at Minneapolis."
