

SOCIAL AUTHORITY SPEAKS

GRAHAM TAYLOR TO ADDRESS STUDENTS AT CONVOCATION MONDAY.

As part of the local Men and Religion Forward Movement, a special convocation will be held for University students in the Temple theatre, Monday at 11:00 o'clock. Graham Taylor of Chicago will address the University public on the "Social Obligations of Educated Men and Women."

Graham Taylor is one of the very great authorities of the country on social and labor problems. He is at the head of the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy and is a member of the Chicago Commons, an organization of the most noted sociological workers and authorities of the Windy City. He is the associate editor of the Social Survey, the greatest paper devoted to sociological work and research in the country.

The government recently in a notable way recognized the high position he holds among authorities on labor and social problems, when it called him to investigate conditions after the Cherry mine disaster.

The Men and Religion Forward Movement is designed to interest men and boys in the work of the churches and it aims especially to bring their attention to lines of work in their local communities which need the united effort of the men in the attempt to better conditions. This is part of a nation-wide movement. The local campaign opens Tuesday night with a banquet at the Auditorium, where W. J. Bryan will preside and deliver an address.

FARM CAMP APRIL 20-24.

Annual Company Compet Will Also Be Held That Week.

Encampment of Farm cadets starts Monday, April 20, and breaks up the following Friday noon.

The annual company compet will take place about the end of that week. There will be six companies in the compet this year.

Camp will be held on the State Farm campus.

There will be stiff competition among the companies for first place this year.

The individual compet occurs during encampment week also. There is a cup offered for first place in this event and three men will be selected from each company to represent that company in the individual compet.

Awful, Isn't It?

The following contribution was received recently. It is respectfully referred to our readers for verification: "When I go to the Orpheum and sit down

The girls on the stage kick their legs around; It makes no difference how I sit and frown,

They keep kicking their legs around."

MEDALS FOR AG. WINNERS.

its progressive spirit by giving eight gold medals to its members who are on the fruit, stock and dairy judging teams. The medals are of solid gold, bear a large "N" on the face, and have the winner's name engraved on the back. They are now on display at Tucker's jewelry store.

The club intends to give an increasing number of these medals each year, as the financial backing of the scheme becomes firmly established.

The eight men who are now wearing the medals are: E. H. Horminghouse, T. W. Moseley, R. E. Marshall, Joe Kuska, Otto Liebers, W. F. Becker, L. O. Thompson and K. F. Warner.
