

ORDERS NOW BEING TAKEN

PRICE OF CORNHUSKER IS $2.00,
PART OF WHICH MUST BE PAID DOWN.

Orders are now being taken for the 1912 Cornhusker. Anyone wishing an annual will be able to order in the entrance to the library, F. Hall, the Engineering building or Nebraska Hall.

The price of the book is $2.00, 50 cents of which must be paid down when the receipt is given, and $1.50 upon receipt of the book, which will be, from all present indications, about the last of May.

Editor Van Dusen is pleased with the way the copy has been coming in the past two or three days, and thinks all the rest will be in by tomorrow, the day when it all is supposed to be ready for the printers. However, there might be a few choice bits which will need a few passing remarks that might have to be written after that date.

All editors are hereby notified, therefore, to have their copy in by Friday if possible.

QUO VADIS PLEDGES

INITIATION OF TEN MEMBERS OF
NEW SOCIAL FRATERNITY
TO OCCUR SOON.

The Quo Vadis Club has been formally instituted and may now hold its head as high as any other social fraternity in school. The meetings of the society are subject to call at any old time and are purely social in nature. Its primary purpose is to promote interest in athletics.

Quo Vadis announces the pledging of the following men: C. J. Abbott, Art May, Dick Westover, Gordon Beck, Dick Halligan, Pete Carlson, Phil Southwick, Frank Long, "Beany" McGowan and Clayton Radcliffe.

The initiation, which will positively contain no "ruff stuff," will be held the latter part of the week.

The meeting was addressed by Judges Cornish and Stewart and by Mr. Robertson, Republican candidate for the legislature.

It was voted that a meeting be called for next Monday night at the Lindell hotel at 7:30 o'clock.

Scruby Leaves Chicago.

Horace Scruby, the star end of last year's football team at Chicago, who scored six of Chicago's eleven points against Purdue last fall, by two field goals, has been forced to discontinue his studies at that institution and has returned to his home in Longmont, Colo. He was only a sophomore at Chicago and gave great promise of doing future "starring" for that school, as last year he won his freshman numerals in five different branches of athletics. It was rumored that he was called home because of the serious illness of his mother.—Ex.
