The Daily Mebraskan

VOL. XI. NO. 155.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1912.

Price 5 Cents

COMMENCE'NT PROGRAM OUT

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS TO BE FIRST EVENT.

JUNE 12TH TO BE ALUMNI DAY

Commencement Address in Auditorium Instead of at St. Paul's Church as Was Last Year.

The program for commencement week was yesterday given out from the Registrar's office.

The first event of the week will be the baccalaureate address to the class of 1912. Rt. Rev. J. Henry Tihen, Bishop of Lincoln, will be the speaker. The address will be given at Memorial Hall on Sunday, June 9, at 8:00 p. m. Admission is without ticket.

On Tuesday, June 11, will occur the annual meeting of the Board of Regents. Much important business will be transacted at this time.

Wednesday, June 12, has been set aside as alumni day. From 9 a. m. until 2 p. m. there will be various class breakfasts and luncheons. At 4 p. m. a business meeting of all Nebraska alumni will be held at the State Farm. Dr. Louise Pound will deliver an address, which will be open to the public. From 5 to 7:30 p. m., the alumni banquet will be held, also at the Farm. Immediately afterwards the alumni will return to the Temple for their annual cotillion.

Thursday, June 13, will be com mencement day. Promptly at 10 o'clock the commencement procession will start from the Library, headed by Commandant Yates.

The order of the procession is as follows: University band; Regents, Chancellor and guests of the University; administrative officers and members of the faculty; alumni and former students; candidates for degrees; students and friends.

At 10:15, in the Auditorium, instead of at St. Paul's church as last year, the commencement address will be given by Charles Edward Merriam, Ph.D., professor of political science. University of Chicago, on "Citizen-

Owing to the size of the graduating class reserved seat tickets this year will be given to them and to the faculty only. Alumni and out of town guests will have to take their chance when the doors are thrown open to the public at 10:15.

The festivities of the week will close with a reception given by Chancellor and Mrs. Avery to the Regents, faculty and alumni. The reception will be held in the Art Hall of the Library from 8 to 9:30 p. m.

NOTICE TO SENIORS.

Seniors may secure tickets for the senior play by presenting their assessment receipt at the Oliver Theatre on or after Friday, May 31. A block of the best seats will be held in reserve for the seniors in every part of the house, for either performance, but will go on sale to the general public at 6:00 p. m., Tuesday, June 4.

V. C. HASCALL, Manager.

All who have Single Tax petitions are asked to leave them at the "Rag" office at their earliest convenience.

Program Postponed.

Professor Grummann announces that on account of the holiday Thursday, the musical program scheduled for convocation Thursday will be postponed until the following Tuesday.

CHAIRMAN CALLED TO ACCOUNT FOR DEFICITS ON CLASS PLAYS

Outstanding Debts of Hop Committees Have Been Handed to Professor Chatburn by the Lincoln.

Recently the Lincoln hotel handed in a large number of accounts to Professor Chatburn, chairman of the committee on student finances, showing that students in charge of the University hops and parties have been negligent in paying the bill for the dance hall or "ordinary," or both. In the aggregate the committee does not see fit to give out the definite amount of these accounts, as perhaps it is not thoroughly known even to them, but, to say the least, it is no small sum.

From a number of interviews with some of the chairmen of these hops. the committee have come to the conclusion that these deficits have not come about through intended embezzlement on the part of the dance committees, but rather on account of carelessness in keeping straight the accounts of the dance and receiving a receipt for all the money paid out.

One student swears that he had in his possession about twenty tickets to a certain hop to sell, and out of these twenty tickets he sold three; he brings his witnesses to swear to this fact, yet he cannot account for the other seventeen tickets that he did

"It is such cases as this," says Professor Tuckerman of the student finance committee, "that are making the matter a mean thing to handle. As for the young man's honesty in this affair, I don't think that can be questioned; yet, he should have been more careful and retained the other seventeen tickets that he did not sell. Had this been done the dance committee could have determined with a greater degree of certainty just where they were.'

"In few cases," further says Profes-(Continued on page 4)

PAN-HEL TO BEGIN AT EIGHT

Many Surprises to Be Sprung at An- Several Plays Are Being Written to nual Fraternity Party and a Good Time Assured.

The Pan Hel, which is to be held at the Auditorium this evening, is to begin at 8 o'clock sharp. There are to be at least twenty dances, so that it the vacancies caused by graduation shall begin on scheduled time. Eddie Walt is to perform for the last time this year. 'Nuf sed.

Rumor has it that several surprises are to be sprung in the way of engagements and the like and interest from a purely curious standpoint is at fever heat. As usual, the dance ard, Blaine Ballah and Guy Reed. will be strictly informal and will offer an excellent opportunity for the initial appearance of new summer dresses and straw hats.

Cornhusker Picnic at Woods.

The members of the Cornhusker staff will be the guests of Miss Branson at her cottage in Pen woods tomorrow. The affair will be in the nature of a picnic to last from early in the morning until evening. Now that the strain of putting the final touches to the book has been removed the staff will lapse into care-free indulgence and enjoy itself to the utmost.

INTEREST IN Y.W.C.A. CONFER-ENCE HELD AT CASCADE, COLO.

Several Other States Will Be Represented and a Good Time for All Delegates Present Is Assured.

Much interest is being aroused among the members of the Young Woman's Christian Association in the summer conference to be held at ('ascade, ('olo. from June 21 to July 1 Cascade is eleven miles west of Colorado Springs, in one of the most beautiful parts of the state. The delegates from Nebraska are planning to go in a special car with the delegates. from the University of South Dakota. South Dakota sends sixteen girls. Other states represented are Colorado. Utah, Wyoming, Kansas and New

As usual, classes and lectures will be held in the mornings, leaving the afternoons free for recreation, including trips to the Garden of the Gods. the Cliff Dwellers, Cave of the Winds and other points of interest. afternoon is set apart for "College Day," when the delegates from the different schools give "stunts," hold inter-collegiate basket-ball games and tell of their college customs.

The delegates have the exclusive use of the Hotel Ramona at Cascade. which is converted into a real dormi tory for the college girls. Summer cottages near the hotel are used also.

Contrary to the popular idea, a summer conference does not mean all lessons and lectures. The girls at Cascade spend a week of real recreation among the mountains-kodaking, boating, taking side trips to various points, and meeting girls from other colleges and cities from Utah to New Mexico. There is no restraint and no formality. Immediately after the close of the conference the girls will have opportunity to take excursions to Cripple Creek and Pike's Peak.

Girls interested in the trip to Cas cade may secure pamphlets telling about it at the Y. W. C. A. office.

KOSMET KLUB ELECT MEMBERS

Be Submitted Next Fall and Also Several Songs.

The Kosmet Klub held its last meeting of the year last evening for the purpose of electing members to fill is important that the grand march The membership of the club is limited to twelve and since only five members graduate, a corresponding number were elected for the coming year. These were selected from the upper classes of the University as follows: Roy Allen, Ned Allison, Merle How

> The Klub has already commenced its preparations for next year and has under consideration several plays written, or in the process of construction. The members realize that they will have to put forth every possible effort to equal the standard set this year and in consequence are taking Surplus $ 46.85 time by the forelock.

Company M Smoker.

Company "M" will have the last smoker of the year at the Bushnell Guild, 1536 P street, this evening. Several old officers of the company will be present to encourage the company spirit.

FINANCES ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

TREASURER REPORTS A SATIS-FACTORY BALANCE.

LONG INVESTIGATION IS OVER

Buck Reports a Balance of $95.03-Yale Holland Submits Statement of 1911 Pan-Hel.

At a regular meeting of the Interfraternity Council, held last evening, the treasurer gave out the following report of the council's finances. It is complete and shows all receipts and expenditures for 1911 and 1912, which give a balance of $95.03. The report is the result of long and persistent efforts on the part of the council and is gratifying not only because of the balance shown, but because it culminates a tedious task.

Following is the treasurer's report:

Receipts. From Wilson former trees

ı	From Wilson, former treasurer$ 36.73
	From Boyles, chairman Pan-
	Hel banquet 30.35
	From Holland, chairman Pan-
	Hel. dance
	Total receipts
	Expenditures.
	Printing bill, 1911 rules$ 5.75
	Stenography, May, 1911 2.21
	Notebook cover and paper50
	Stenographic Bureau-
	October, 1911 2.46
	November, 1911 1.54
	February 1912
	May, 1912 1.28
	May 24, 1912
	Stamps, Interfraternity Council, for year 1911-1912 4.10
	Total expenditures $ 18.90
	Amount on hand $ 95.03
	SAM BUCK, Treas, 1911-1912.

Statement of Yale Holland, chairman of committee. Pan-Hellenic dance of 1911:

Receipts.

May 28, 1912.

Wilson-Beta Theta Pi 14 Halligan-Phi Delta Theta 26
Halligan Phi Delta Theta 26	0.0
	.00
Krause-Kappa Sigma 10	.00
Pomerine-Sigma Alpha Epsilon 18	.00
	.00
Rubendahl-Alpha Theta Chi. 20	.00
Hawley-Sigma Nu 20	.00
	.00
	.00
	. 00
Holland-Sigma Chi, and tickets sold at the door 50	.00

Total receipts$260.00

	Expenditures.
	Programs$	23.50
	Auditorium	75.00
	Sign	2.75
	Music	58.00
Š	Miller & Paine	8.65
	Punch, Tommy ('oleman	30.00
	Incidentals	15.25
3
i	Total expenditures$	213.15

NOTICE.

The senior assessment is now due and will be collected by those authorized to do so. Upon payment of this assessment each senior will be given an order entitling him to $2.00 worth of tickets to the senior play, on Friday, June 7.