

ATHLETIC BOARD HAS MEETING

Was Decided That G. E. Reed Be Sent to Olympic Tryouts and Anderson if in Condition.

Yesterday at 5 p. m. the athletic board held a meeting in Dr. Clapp's office. Since there was not a quorum present there could be no official business transacted and all that was done by the small number present will have to be gone over at the next board meeting. It is understood, however, that Guy Reed will undoubtedly be sent to the Olympic tryouts at Chicago and Louis Anderson will also be sent if he is in condition at the time and is showing up in good form. Rascely will not be in condition to run at the time.

It is not yet definitely known who will be sent to the Purdue meet.

SENIORS HOLD CLASS MEETING

Levy Made to Cover All Debts and to Buy Class Present—Senior Play Discussed.

At the senior class meeting held yesterday morning the matter of levying an assessment was considered. Vincent Hascall explained the system which has been used in former years, namely, that of assessing each senior $2.00 to pay any outstanding debts and to provide a fund for the class memorial.

That each class shall graduate from the University free from debt is an unwritten law; that it shall support its class play is not a law, but it should be. In accordance with these sentiments the class adopted a resolution providing for the levying of a $2.00 assessment to cover not only the outstanding debts and the purchase of a gift, but also to insure the financial success of its play.

The members of the class debt committee, the class gift committee, and the business manager of the play were authorized to collect this assessment. The committee which selected the gift was empowered to purchase the same. It was also announced that reserved seats for the play are to be held for the seniors until Wednesday of next week, at which time they will be put on general sale.

LAW FACULTY TO SCATTER.

Many of the Professors of the Nebraska Law College Will Visit Various Places This Summer.

Very soon after the 8th of June, Nebraska's law faculty will be scattered pretty nearly in the four corners of the United States, some doing one thing, others another. Professor Robbins is anxious to get his work lined up for the coming year and cases ready for trial. His work will take him to Washington, Colorado and Iowa during the summer. Dean Hastings expects to be in Chicago during the convention, and later to attend the meeting of the National Bar Association at Milwaukee. After his summer work at Ann Arbor, Professor and Mrs. Conant will leave for Boston, returning by way of Milwaukee. Doctor Maxey will be in Lincoln until the opening of the Chicago convention, where he will go to witness what promises to be the greatest struggle

Ideals are like stars, you can't touch them but you can use them as guides and follow them.

One of our guiding ideals in business is "courteous and efficient service for every customer."

If you have preconceived clothes wants our salesmen do their best to satisfy them.

If you have not, they give you intelligently and honestly what their judgment tells them is best for you—regardless of the store's interest.

We'd rather have your continued patronage and good will than to bleed you once and lose you forever.

When you're ready for new clothes or furnishings keep this in mind.
