

STUNT DAYS FOR CO-EDS.

Girls' Club and Y. W. Plan to Offer Many Entertainments This Year.

Friday and Saturday are to be "stunt days" for the co-eds of the University, according to plans which have filtered through the Girls' Club and the Y. W. Little social gatherings have been planned for and are to be followed by others at intervals.

The first of these is the girls' meeting in the Y. W. C. A. rooms from 12 to 12:15 today. Miss Evangeline Long will preside, and Miss Kuhn will sing.

The weekly University tea will be held in the afternoon from 3 to 5 in Art Hall. Several of the ladies of the faculty are always at these teas, and the girls who come gain their acquaintance besides meeting classmates.

For Saturday of next week a novel stunt has been planned by the Girls' Club board, which met yesterday morning. It will consist of a breakfast at the State Farm, and something unusual in the way of girls' gatherings is expected. Further announcements in regard to this will be made later.

now, wherein candidates are required to file at a certain time and place in order to be placed on the ballot, this inactivity at the last minute of the "open season" seems out of place, considering that there is nothing to be gained by dilatory tactics.

Thursday was to have been the last day on which candidates might file, but this period has been extended one day, closing at 5 o'clock tonight, in order that no one may be excluded through a misunderstanding of the time. However, since only the names which are given in before that time go on the ballots, it will be necessary for would-be candidates to take definite action today.

PHI ALPHA TAUS TO MEET.

First Meeting of Year to Be Held Next Tuesday to Discuss Tariff Question.

THE COLLEGE PAPER

the school's teams are defeated in every game, there is no athlete who is not referred to as worthy of a place on the all-star aggregations.

In the early days of higher education college papers appeared intermittently, once or twice a year; then the publication stalked forth in monthly form with long stories and treatises; later the advertisers were induced to pay for weekly issues; and now any large university should be able to publish a morning and an evening daily. Whatever may become of the college paper of future years, even though it continues to rustle its pages in the faces of many non-subscribers, it will never lose any of its vigor until all things collegiate pass away.—Denver Clarion.

In College the fastidiousness of a man's nature crops out if it ever does.

Rollicking young chaps, careless yet particular, more thorough in styles than in studies, there's a reason why they flock to us.

Smart, distinctive L SYSTEM and KENMOR Suits, $14.50 to $30—designed and tailored to enthuse young men. English models with the soft roll lapels and natural shoulders—much "class." Come in and look them over.
