VOTE ON TUESDAY

CLASS PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
WILL BE HELD IN ARMORY.

AUSTRALIAN BALLOTING PLAN

Five Men Represented for Freshman Class — Majority of Candidates from Lincoln; None from Omaha.

The last chance for the candidates for the class presidencies to file applications passed at 5 o'clock Friday evening. The official ballot will contain the names of one senior, two juniors, two sophomores and five freshmen, who aspire to the leadership of their respective classes. A sufficient number of these ballots will be on hand Tuesday, when the battle royal is slated, so that every member of the classes will be able to have a say in the results. The polls will be open from 8 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon, and will be located in Memorial Hall. The vote will be entirely secret, as no workers will be allowed to work openly in the place of election. No tickets or posters will be permitted in the vicinity of the polls.

Majority from Lincoln.

Of the ten men aspiring to office, a large majority are Lincoln men; a fact that is especially noticeable is the absence of any Omaha men on the ballot. Whom the Omaha students will support is as yet uncertain, but that it will materially affect the final result of the election is easily seen from the large number of Omaha men in the University.

In the senior class the only man in the race, and probably the electee, is Harold R. Mulligan of Beatrice, registered law 1913. He is well known from his work on the reserve football team last year and his promising work this fall. He is a member of Delta Tau fraternity. The juniors will vote on two candidates, Fred R. Trumble and Z. Clark Dickensen. Trumble is from Minden, is registered in the College of Agriculture, and in the politics class. Dickensen is an old Lincoln high man and has done work in debating in the University, being a member of the squad this year.

In the sophomore contest L. F. Meier of Lincoln is the only candidate. Phil Southwick, also of Lincoln, has been forced to withdraw from the race on account of the pressure of outside work.

Freshmen Multiply.

In the freshman class five aspirants have appeared: P. M. Dennis, Lincoln, arts and science; C. S. Holcombe, Maxwell, arts and science; Frederick Macdonald, Lincoln, arts and science; B. A. Thomas, Nelson, arts and science; P. A. Warner, Lincoln, Engineering College.

Ralph E. Weaverling, ex '11, of North Bend; Fred Laird, ex '05, of Fremont, and A. C. Kennedy, of Omaha, an old Nebraskan, are visiting at the Alpha Tau Omega house for the week.

WILSON TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Speaks in Temple Theater Tonight—
Parade in His Honor Will Be Formed on Athletic Field.

Woodrow Wilson, one of the greatest men in university work in this country and incidentally the democratic candidate for president, will make an address to University students and faculty at 9 o'clock in Temple theater tonight. He will come directly to the Temple from a mass meeting at the Auditorium.

At 5:30 p. m. Saturday, immediately after the football game, the students will form a line on the football field behind the University band and march to the Lincoln Hotel, where they will take their place in the parade that will escort Mr. Wilson to the Lindell Hotel. They will be given a prominent place in the parade and all those who participate will be given reserved seats at the Temple Theater, where the address to University students will be given.

STUDY COST OF LIVING.

University of Wisconsin Offers New Course on Prices.

A course on prices and the cost of living will be given at the University of Wisconsin this year. The new course, which will be in charge of Prof. R. H. Hess, will be concerned with a detailed study of prices and marketing conditions in the United States during the last twenty years. How the middleman takes the profit from the producer will be one of the interesting facts brought out.

As a study of all products can not be undertaken in a course of this kind, attention will be given to the three great products, wheat, cotton and meat, which typify market and price changes in general. The reason why the price of meat has advanced about 4 per cent a year during the last twenty years, and how systems of marketing influence the price of products are two important topics that will be treated.

Ames has great hopes of winning from Minnesota next Saturday. Since the South Dakota game last week proved that most of the Gopher bear stories are true, the odds are in favor of the Aggies.

CADET BAND RETURNS HOME

Win Praise from Omaha Citizens and Visitors by Splendid Appearance in Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival.

Tired and footsore, but covered with glory, the cadet band has returned from the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival at Omaha. They were royally welcomed by the citizens of Omaha, and were given posts of honor in both the parades in which they took part.

On Wednesday night, the first night of their arrival, at 7 p. m., they appeared in the big electrical parade and marched through the streets of the city for an hour and a half. As the band passed down the street it was recognized by Nebraska alumni and was cheered time after time. Upon nearly every street corner was a crowd of former students, who gave the old familiar yell, "U-U-Uni," to the music of the band.

On Thursday afternoon the cadets led the military and civic parade that featured the day. The boys appeared at their best and reflected credit upon the University.

The following was taken from the Omaha Bee:

"While brass bands interpolated the line of procession, probably none received as great an ovation as the cadet band from the University of Nebraska, which followed directly behind the amethyst float. It was under the leadership of Prof. C. B. Cornell. Thirty-two pieces were brought from Lincoln to furnish this part of the splendid music of the procession."

COURTS READY NEXT WEEK.

Have Been Rolled and Put in Condition for Fall Tournament.

The new tennis courts received their finishing touches yesterday, and Reed promises that playing will begin in a couple of days, providing the weather remains favorable. The courts have been dragged and thoroughly rolled, putting them in fairly good shape for the fall tournament.

Girls' Club Breakfast.

The University Girls' Club will give a breakfast at the State Farm Saturday, October 12. The tickets will be on sale Monday. The cars are to leave Twelfth and O at 8 o'clock, and the breakfast will be served at 9 o'clock. Watch the Nebraskan for further announcements.

FIRST CLASH TODAY

CORNHUSKERS MEET BELLEVUE
COLLEGIANS IN OPENING GAME.

LINE WILL GET TESTING OUT

Results of Stiehm's Labor to Be Seen —Temple and O. Frank Have Assisted in Task.

The initial performance of the Cornhuskers will be given on the Nebraska gridiron this afternoon, their opponents being the Bellevue collegians. Although the battle will not be of championship type, it will nevertheless give the admirers a glimpse of the real worth of the team. The workouts of the last few days have been highly satisfactory even to the most pessimistic fan. The improvement was quite noticeable in the game with the freshmen last Thursday, when a large score was easily run up.

Line Gets Whip.

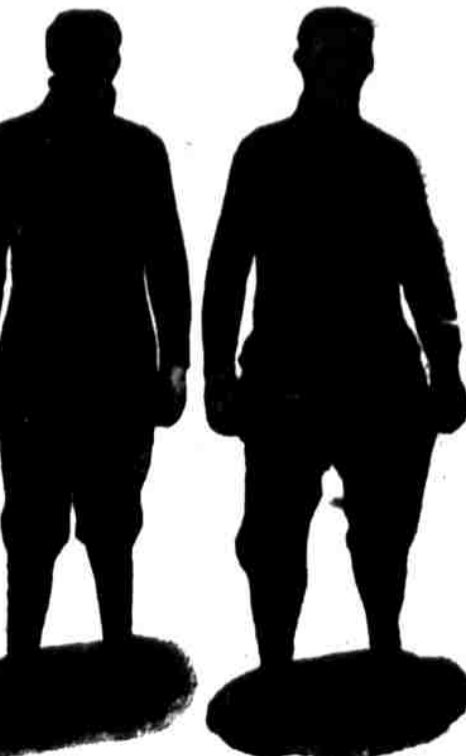

The long mentor has worked early and late to whip the line into shape, and the fruits of his labor will be seen today. He has been ably assisted by ex-Captain Temple of the Missouri Valley champions of 1910 and Owen Frank, star half of last year.

Practice yesterday was light, but filled with lots of pep. The ends spent a major portion of the time in catching forward passes and running down punts, while the backfield was busy with drop and place-kicking. Potter showed up well in the latter, while Beck had the better of the argument in drop-kicking. Neither one shows any great form as yet.

Gibson was absent from practice, but Pearson, who has been absent the last couple of days, was out in uniform.

Stand Not Completed.

The grandstand, which has been undergoing the roofing process, is rapidly nearing completion. The roof is finished, but a number of brace rods have to be placed in position before the scaffolding can be torn down. After a coat of paint is added to the new addition.
