WILLIAMS MEN DEFEAT AMES

Halligan and Mastin Particular Stars—
Frank and Purdy Back in Old
Form—Secret Practice
This Week

Nebraska started out like a Valley championship team last Saturday when they defeated Bellevue by the score of 61 to 0. The Presbyterians were completely outclassed, but fought a plucky game all the time.

The Cornhusker line showed a great improvement and the backfield were away several times for long runs. Nothing but straight football was used, and only five forward passes were tried, and only one of these was completed.

Halligan was the shining light when it came to getting scores. He made four touchdowns, Purdy two, Harmon one, Frank one and Howard made one after a seventy-yard run from the kick-off. Halligan is a star when it comes to line plunges. He is heavy, speedy, and runs low and wide; with a little more experience will be the fastest fullback in the valley. Mastin put up a terrible defense at right end, and appears to be developing into an all-Missouri Valley man. Captain Frank played his old-style game with his shifty and squirming runs around the ends.

Stiehm is getting his men in trim for the Minnesota game, and hopes to duplicate the South Dakota trick. Minnesota showed up very poorly Saturday in the game with Ames, defeating the Iowa Aggies by but 5 points, with none of the spectacular team work which in former years has been exhibited by Coach Williams' machine. Pickering was also conspicuously absent, together with his long end runs and quick work at catching punts. Only three veterans appeared in the game and these appeared to have lost their last year's form. Minnesota's weight on the line is less than has been known for the past six years. Her backfield is inexperienced and slow, as was seen in the South Dakota game two weeks ago. Prospects look better for a Cornhusker victory October 18 than has been the case for several years.

This week's practice will probably be secret the greater portion of the time, ending up the week with the game Saturday with the Kansas Aggies. The Manhattan team is practically the same as last year, and no doubt will furnish the fans a chance to see a good game. Last year the Cornhusker bested them badly, but dope from Manhattan gives them one of the strongest teams in the south valley this year.

DEBATING SQUAD PICKED

Seminar Increased by Ten New Men—
Prominent Class Debaters Appear On the Scene.

The membership of the intercollegiate debate seminary, from which the University of Nebraska selects its representatives in the two annual contests of the Central Debating League (Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin), was completed Saturday morning, when ten students were appointed at the second preliminary debate in June. The honors were awarded by five members of the faculty, Professors J. E. LeRossignol, G. O. Virtue, George A. Stephens, E. B. Conant and Edwin Maxey.

The fifteen members appointed to seats in the seminary are as follows:

Hugh Agor, 1914, is a native of St. Paul, Neb., but his home is now at Omaha. He is taking the six-year course.

Harry James Burtis, 1913, is a Kansan whose home is now in Lincoln. He was a member of the junior class debating team that won the class championship last spring.

Zemas Clark Dickinson, 1914, who was born at Atkinson, Neb., and whose home is now at Sterling, Col., represented the Lincoln High School two years in debate and was president of the senior class. He won membership in the intercollegiate debate seminary last year and won in the sophomore debate team that defeated the freshmen in the interclass series. He is a member of the English Club.

Charles H. Epperson, 1914, is from Clay Center. He represented the Clay Center High School in interscholastic debate and was a member of the University interclass debating board in his freshman and sophomore years. He is going into the law.

Jerome Richard Forbes, 1913, is from Wayne. He was on the Wayne High School debating team and on the freshman team in 1910. He was president of the Students' Debating Club last year and was a member of the intercollegiate debate seminary in 1911. He is a member of Delta Chi.

Ralph W. Garrett, 1912, law 1914, was graduated from the Madison High School in 1908, and took Phi Beta Kappa honors on graduating from the College of Arts last June. Last December he represented the University of Iowa. He is a member of the Alpha Theta Chi and of Delta Sigma Rho.

Harvey W. Hess, 1914, of Hebron, took second honors in the class of 1910 at the Hebron High School. He represented the school in the Nebraska

FRAT PLEDGING HELD UP

Committee on Student Organizations
Prevents Pledging until Violation of Rules Are Investigated.

No action and an adjournment until Wednesday at 5 o'clock was the result of a meeting of the committee on student organizations and social functions, held yesterday afternoon in the office of Miss Ensign, advisor to women.

The meeting was called to consider the status of Nebraska fraternities anent their pledging freshmen. A blanket injunction was issued last Saturday by the committee against all fraternities prohibiting them from pledging until further notice.

The committee took this action in order to gain an opportunity to look into some alleged violations of the University social regulations, with special reference to the prohibition of formal entertainments after 8 o'clock on week nights.

Representatives from every fraternity waited on the committee and were disappointed to learn that a settlement of the issue had been postponed forty-eight hours.

The committee has sought delay in the effort to secure more evidence. Prof. George R. Chatham, chairman of the committee, said in substance to a group of fraternity men, that the committee was confident that the University regulations had been violated in spirit, if not in letter, and that an effort would be made to obtain evidence of the same. He suggested to the men that it was their duty to help the committee, and intimated that if they did not co-operate the investigation might continue all semester. It seems that most of the fraternities entertained freshmen in the chapter houses after 8 o'clock, and that in general late hours were kept during the entire week. It was felt by the committee that the prevalence of entertainment in the chapter houses constituted a tacit violation of the rules.

The committee is composed of the following members of the University senate: Professors Chatham (chairman), Tuckerman (auditor), Le Rossignol, Sanford, Lees, Miss Ensign, and Miss Conklin.

Judging Team Leaves for K. C.

The stock judging team left Saturday for the English Royal Stock Show at Kansas City, which takes place this week. They expect to return Tuesday. The team is under the coaching of Professors Ellis Rail and R. K. Bliss. The members are H. Raymond, W. Wisner, R. J. Rosseau, H. P. Pier, and H. W. Richey.

CAST VOTES TODAY

GENERAL ELECTION OF CLASS PRESIDENTS HOLD STAGE.

SUFFRAGETTES' VOTES COURTED

Freshmen Lead the Field in Number of Candidates—Activity Shown by Candidates' Cards Flooding Campus.

Voting in the general class presidential election is on today. The polls opened at 9 o'clock in Memorial Hall, and the vote is being cast under the rules and regulations of the Australian ballot system. Members of the four classes who have overlooked previous notices are reminded that this is the official and only vote of the semester on the presidency, and that the polls close at 5 o'clock.

The polls are in charge of members of the faculty and the Registrar's office and no student will be allowed within except one representative of each candidate. No canvassing of votes is to be carried on in the vicinity of the polls.

One noticeable feature of the campaign this semester is the effort to get out the co-ed vote. The fact is strongly impressed on each girl that even though she can take no part in national politics in this state, she can at least signify her preference for the "leading man" of her class. One candidate, realizing the importance of the girls' vote, has secured the use of an automobile to convey them to the place of voting. In all, the effort to get out the vote is more spirited than has been seen around the campus for some time, according to the oldest inhabitants.

For the information of the curious or misinformed, the following directory of the candidates has been compiled and may be used as reference:

Harold Mulligan—Senior candidate—Is a Beatrice man, registered as a senior law. He won his "R" in football last year, and is a candidate for end on this year's team. He is a member of the Innocent society and of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Clark Dickenson—Junior candidate—Graduated from Lincoln High in 1910 and is an arts and science man. He is well known in University debating circles, having represented his class on last year's team, and being a member of this year's squad.

Fred R. Trumble—Junior Candidate—Is a Minden graduate, registered in the College of Agriculture. He has been well known among the members of his class and has served on several hop and other committees. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity.

L. F. Meier—Sophomore candidate—Is a sophomore medic and is a graduate of Lincoln High, in the class of '08. He is a basketball and track man, well known for his activity in these lines, and is a member of the Acacia fraternity.

P. M. Dennis—Freshman candidate—
