

DOPE

Jack Best said last evening that he would appreciate it very much if the person who left his fountain pen, stickpin or his coat in the locker room would call and take them out of his way.

At the University of Chicago season tickets are being sold for $5, which will admit students to all the home contests, including football, baseball, track and basketball. It also includes the fee for the use of the tennis courts.

The football manager at Colorado University recently found it necessary to order a special football suit to get one large enough for a husky mountaineer.

Seven veterans of the Cornell football team have been dismissed from the training table by Coach Sharpe on account of their indifferent attitude toward their work on the team.

The Australian rugby team arrived in San Francisco the other day and was given a hearty reception by the California, Stanford and Olympic clubs. The visitors will be entertained for the next few days and then will play their first game next Saturday with the Barbarians in San Francisco.

Harvard—An official rat catcher has been appointed at Harvard. Many valuable papers and books have been destroyed in the buildings, but with the new employe and his assistants, a fox terrier, two ferrets, and a score of traps, it is hoped that this trouble will cease.

CROSS-COUNTRY LACKS VETERAN

Captain Boggs Only Old Man in Squad of Twenty-five Practicing Daily.

The cross-country team, under the leadership of Capt. J. H. Boggs, is rapidly rounding into fine form. The number of men has been daily increasing until at present there about twenty-five men, out. As yet no old men have reported, so that Captain Boggs seems to be the only veteran in the team. O. H. Zumwinkle, a freshman star of last year, and considered a probable Missouri Valley sensation, is also on the team.

The cinder path has been discarded and the men now go upon long hikes into the country. The going out into the rough territory is doing much to develop the men, and the team is showing every indication of being a Missouri Valley champion.

The following men are working out at present: C. R. Weber, Theo Kubik, L. S. Phares, C. H. Anderson, H. Foe, G. P. Kratz, E. G. Anderson, G. F. Farman, J. J. Stuckey, D. W. Wilhaus, A. C. Schmidt, V. D. Smith, J. L. Mc-Masters, M. E. Wade, O. Theisen, H. M. Diers, J. Cutright, R. Lyman and O. H. Zumwinkle.
