

SPIRIT GETS BOOST

UNI. SPIRIT ROUSED IN FIRST BIG RALLY OF YEAR.

CORNHUSKERS OUT TO WIN

So Stiehm Assures Fans—Rain Keeps Many Away—Coffee and Meade Lead in Good Old Nebraska Yells.

Dampening weather did not lessen the customary Nebraska spirit at the football rally held yesterday morning in Memorial Hall for the Kansas Aggie game. In spite of the weather a large crowd of loyal Nebraskans were in attendance.

"Biddy" Meade and "Moke" Coffee, the new yell leaders elected by the Innocents, led in the yells and gave pep to the assemblage. In fact, the rally showed pep from start to finish.

Chancellor Avery opened the meeting in his customary vigorous style and told how the team was going to beat the Aggies and how the rooters could aid them by their rooting.

Coach Stiehm was not so optimistic in his views as he formerly has been, but he assured them the squad was going into the game for victory. Cries for "We want Captain Frank" forced that quiet natured person to the platform, and he assured them that the team was up against one of the hardest games of the season. The rooters assured him by three lusty cheers that they would do their part.

Dr. Condra, whose absence would make a rally incomplete, gave his customary "pepperbox" address. He put pep into the audience by leading in cheers for the Chancellor, the team, and gave the freshmen a chance to show their vocabulary power with "U—U—U—N—L."

With a selection from the band the first rally of 1912 closed.

I am staunch, a fashionable chap—the famous, reliable swell Heidcap, once caps were worn by the frowsy kid, or teamster or tough so the face was hid—but now I'm the ultra and classy lid. For the good Heidcap has swagger and snap, and makes of a chap an aristocrat. Of English cloth I'm made for they—In England can beat us any day, at weaving cloth in a wearable way—but I'm fashioned here in the U.S.A. I'm fashioned here with a sort of go, and swagger and lines that makes you know, that I am the son, that a fellow ought, put on his head if he'd look just so. There isn't a thing that a cap should be, that you won't find built into humble me. Best of cloth and best of care in making a cap that's fit to wear—and the owner looks like a millionaire. There's an inference plain from what I've said—the Heidcaps place is at the head.
