THE WEEK'S REVIEW.

Being a Brief Resume of the Events of the Past Week, as Gleaned from Nebraskan Files.

Nebraska started out like a Valley championship team last Saturday, when they emerged from the Bellevue game sixty-one points to the good. Straight football was the order of the day, but despite this Halligan, Purdy, and Howard were able to do some display work.

With Minnesota and Manhattan as objectives the team has undergone a week of stiff practice, a greater part of it being secret. Pearson, the speedy tackle, will be out for today's game on account of injuries, otherwise the team seems to have kept in good condition.

Governor Woodrow Wilson paid a short visit to the University and addressed the students in the Temple.

Prof. Edwin Maxey has a comprehensive article on the recall of judges in the September Forum. An article on Jack London by Prof. P. M. Buck is reviewed in the current number of the Literary Digest.

The moot court, the hidden sorrow of the law students, convenes for the year.

The University electrician makes an appeal to the students to return electric light globes stolen from the campus. In view of the fact that the same won't turn on the city circuit, the request seems to be reasonable.

The intercollegiate debating squad is chosen by Professor Fogg and a committee of judges.

Fraternity men are prohibited from pledging a herding bunch of freshmen until October 14 by the students' organization committee. The injunction was issued pending an investigation of alleged violation of University regulations.

The following men are elected to the presidency of their respective classes:

H. R. Mulligan, senior; Clark Dickson, junior; L. F. Meler, sophomore; P. A. Warner, freshman. This election marked the first trial of the Australian ballot system.

According to the report of Dr. Kendrick C. Babcock, the government's educational expert, the University ranks among the fifty-nine best colleges in the country.

Merrill Reed and Cloyd Stewart are appointed managing editor and associate editor respectively of The Nebraskan. John S. Bowen becomes circulation manager.

The first football rally of the season was held Thursday morning. It was a good one, bringing out considerable enthusiasm and good fellowship.

Lincoln churches hold receptions for University students Friday night.

Some trouble arises over the proximity of a carnival company to the campus and Gertrude Hall. Through the intervention of the student body the local authorities remove said nuisance and thereby avert what might have been a scene.

PERSHING RIFLES ELECT.

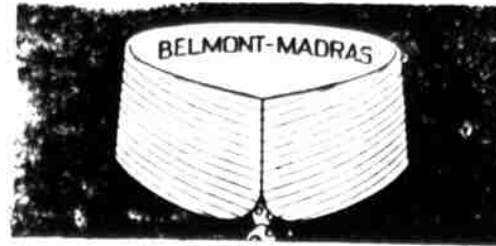

Choose Officers for Year at Thursday Meeting—Enthusiasts Wanted.

The Pershing Rifles held their first weekly meeting of the year on Thursday evening, and after a short business session an election of company officers was held. To manage the routine side of the company the officers elected were as follows: President, C. K. Paine; vice president, H. F. Kramer; secretary, A. W. Dewey; treasurer, L. Breen.

The officers entrusted with the drill and discipline of the company were chosen as follows: Captain, C. K. Paine; first lieutenant, I. T. Gramlich; second lieutenant, H. F. Kramer; first sergeant, A. E. Allyn.

The Pershings are the crack military organization of the University, composed of the best drillers of the First Cadet regiment. Their meetings are held every Thursday evening at 7:15, and are open to enthusiastic drillers who are anxious to perfect the training they receive in the regular daily drills.
