DOPE

The athletic committee at Missouri is sending out invitations to all "M" men for the "M" men's reunion to be held at the Missouri-Nebraska game November 2. A banquet will be held the night before the game, and it is planned to give the old letter men "M" diplomas which are suitable for framing.

Coach Williams of Minnesota has been working his men very hard for what promises to be a great battle with Iowa at Minneapolis tomorrow. He has invented a number of new shift formations which will be used against the Iowans.

An exchange defines a kiss as "A heaven-given power by which a man can stop a woman's mouth without knocking her in the head."

The Drake Daily Delphis has the Missouri Valley championship problem solved. The scribe places Drake at the head of the list with Ames, Nebraska, Washington, Missouri, and Kansas following in order. He further says, "We'll predict anything now after our luck in forecasting the result of the Jayhawker game." He wants to be careful about predicting the Ames game or he might accidentally step off.

AUTUMN.

Fields brown and sear and yellow leaves
Tell us of fall with harvest past:
The golden sheaves are in the shock at last.
Skies are clear and sunsets have a ruddy glow—
Best season of the year, God surely meant it so.

I. D. W.

J. L. FERGUSON

of Broken Bow,

Candidate for

United States Senator of Nebraska

By Petition

I am a farmer and was educated at the University of Michigan and am running for the office of United States Senator by request of business men and fair-minded farmers, and I stand pat against, and for the repeal of the PARCELS POST LAW, as it now stands, and I ask the support of every jobber, traveling man, merchant, railroad man, rural route carrier, drayman and every fair minded farmer, as it is a vital question to all of them.

I have not asked for a penny to help me in my campaign, BUT DO ASK the support of every fair-minded voter in Nebraska.

Respectfully yours,

J. L. FERGUSON,

Broken Bow, Nebraska.
