

BUT FEW UNI GRADS

EIGHT OUT OF 179 POLITICAL CANDIDATES ARE NEB. GRADS.

SMALL NUMBER OUT OF FIELD

Nebraskan Checks Up List of Candidates on State Ticket—College Men in Legislature Are Few in Number.

Of the 179 candidates for legislative and executive offices on this fall's state ticket, the small number of eight is all that represents University of Nebraska graduates. A number of others were found to have spent two or three years on the campus, and still others are graduates or attendants of other schools, but the number of Nebraska graduates is very small.

These figures were brought to light during the course of an investigation that the Daily Nebraskan has been carrying on. Much has been said this fall concerning the desirability of electing men to office who favored the interests of the University, and the resulting investigation finds that of these men but eight are graduates.

Added to these men, provided they are elected, will be a number of loyal Nebraskans who did not finish here but are pulling for the old school. So that the number of college men in the Legislature and in Congress is bound to be strong and a force to be reckoned with.

The Nebraska graduates on the ticket are as follows:

D. B. Gibbert, '07 A. B., of Fremont; candidate for United States Senator on the prohibition ticket.

Paul F. Clark, '87 B. L., '98 A. M., at present a lawyer in this city; candidate for Congressman of the First district on the republican and progressive ticket.

John A. Maguire, '98 A. M., '99 LL. B., is a candidate on the democratic ticket in opposition to Mr. Clark. Mr. Maguire received a B. Sc. degree at the Iowa State Agricultural College in 1893, and is at present the acting Congressman of the First district.

Charles M. Skiles, '92 B. L., '95 LL. B., at present a lawyer at David City, is a candidate for Congressman of the Fourth district on the democratic ticket.

E. E. Placek, '97 LL. B., at present county judge at Wahoo, is a candidate for State Senator of the Third district, being affiliated with the democratic party.

J. H. Kemp, '98 LL. B., who is now a lawyer at Fullerton, is a candidate for State Senator of the Ninth district on the republican ticket.

Frank W. Bartos, '00 LL. B., at present a lawyer at Wilber, is a candidate for State Senator of the Sixteenth district on the democratic ticket.

Walter V. Hoagland, '95 A. B., '96 LL. B., at present a lawyer at North Platte, is a candidate for State Senator of the Twenty-fifth district on the republican ticket.
