How you vote for President is not vitally important to us.

But we would like your support in the local campaign.

We want to be elected exclusive clothiers and furnishers to the best dressed men in town, an office which we feel especially competent to hold.

Here's our platform; Fresher styles, finer tailoring, painstaking personal attention to every customer.

It's not a visionary ideal with which to attract votes—but a practical program which we follow every day, all the time.
