

KANSAS STILL IN THE RACE

Jayhawkers Have It Doped Out that They Still Have a Good Chance.

Kansas is not out of the Missouri Valley Championship yet. The defeat by the Sooners Saturday should not be taken too seriously, for Oklahoma is not a member of the Conference.

Suppose that next Saturday the Missouri Tigers should defeat Drake, and then the next Saturday Kansas should defeat the Nebraska Cornhuskers, and if the annual game between Drake and Ames should result in a victory for the Drake Bulldogs, and then to round up the situation, if the Jayhawkers should claim the disputed championship of the Missouri Valley, because at the close of the season the teams are supposed to have reached the perfection of playing, and since Kansas was beaten by a Conference team at the beginning of the season, and defeated the stronger teams at the close of the season, and since the championship is not decided upon until after Thanksgiving day, Kansas could lay claim to the highest honors in the Missouri Valley. AG SCHOOL SCHEDULE OUT

Meets Aurora, Uni Place and Ashland This Season—University Sophomore Team Bested 6-0.

The football schedule for the School of Agriculture has been arranged and three stiff games confront the Aggies in the rest of the season. Friday, November 15, Aurora High School sends a team here to meet them; on the 22d of November the team travels to University Place (via Uni Place and Have-lock line), and plays the U. P. H. S. team. As a final windup of the season the Ashland team will be served up for Thanksgiving, the game being played on the Ashland grounds.

Enthusiasm is not the word to express the feeling displayed over the team, and a number of players have been out each night for practice, enough for two teams. The line and backfield has been composed of the following men thus far: Line—Armstrong, Rieke, Rodgers, Thurber, Aker, Gould, Stewart, Pope, Scofield. Backfield—Capt. Rice, Corby, Thompson, Rink, Cutshell, Phelps, Gaddis.

BESSEY DELIVERS ADDRESS.

To Speak Before State Teachers' Association Meeting in Omaha.

Dean Bessey, head of the University botany department, left yesterday for Omaha, where he will deliver an address before the State Teachers' Association. The subject of his address will be "Botany in the Public Schools." It is one of the dean's hobbies that botany be taught in the public schools at as early a time as possible.
