WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 13, 1912.

The Nebraskan has been running a series of articles on the status of the freshman in the different leading institutions of the country. By Saturday noon we hope to have a fair lineup on what place they are destined to occupy at Nebraska.

VARSITY UNDAUNTED BY RAIN

Scrimmage with Scrubs Order of Day
—New Plays Being Worked Out.

The cold wind and rain did not prevent Stehm from putting his proteges through a gruelling practice. The freshmen under the tutelage of Coach Frank were relegated to the State Farm, but the varsity took their exercise on the regular field.

The first part of the practice consisted of light work, which later turned into a lively scrimmage. The Cornhuskers tried a few of their new plays on the scrubs and they worked well, considering the unfavorable conditions. Coach Frank gave the freshmen a few more plays similar to those used by Kansas and Oklahoma, which will be used against the varsity this week.

Purdy was out in uniform again last night taking part in the rough work. His knee is still in bad shape, but by the end of the week should be in fair condition. All of the rest of the squad are in the pink of condition, and if nothing happens before Saturday the team will give the Jayhawkers the best the Huskers can afford. —Jimmy.

BERT WILSON AT VESPER.

Presents the "Social Survey" at Thursday Meeting.

The weekly Y. W. C. A. vesper service was held Tuesday afternoon in the association rooms with Miss Helen Jesse as leader.

Mr. Bert Wilson, secretary of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, spoke on "The Social Survey." He illustrated his talk with charts which have been prepared by the Home Mission Council. These crarts clearly show the social problems of the country and proved very interesting.

SEEK THE CALCEUM GLOW

Co-eds Seeking Experience in the Dramatic Art Will "Supe" in the "Elektra" Tonight.

Ten co-eds from Miss Howell's class in elocution will take part in the "Elektra of Euripides" tonight at the Oliver. The girls volunteer merely from their "love of art," and are paid in experience. They have been rehearsing in the Greek costume for the past several days and claim that they are fairly well accustomed to the flowing robes and wooden sandals of the ancients.

The "Julia Harlowes"-to-be are Mildred Daniels, Clarice Breese, Elsie Peterson, Vivian Holland, Florence Hostetter, Leta Turner, Evelyn Dobbs, Evelyn Westberg, Cora Brown and Margaret Keifer. —F.

WIN OR WEAR SKULL CAPS

This is Threat Held Before Freshmen at Rally Yesterday by Olympic Chairman—More Appointments.

In spite of the rain and the Coburn Players, a big bunch of enthusiastic freshman assembled to their Olympic rally yesterday morning. Howard Ankeny of the Olympic committee gave the details of the big scrap next Saturday, and threatened them with green skull caps if they lost the battle. The men have been placed in the various contests, and the majority of the class is now looking forward to the actual struggle Saturday morning. Not a man will concede the sophomores anything but a bad beating.

Warner appointed the following additional men to the cap and color committee, which will start at once to take orders for freshman caps: Boyd Rist, Humboldt; Fred Garrison, Blue Hill; Bexter Corson, Omaha; Rudolph Johnson, Omaha. —Fuzz.

WELCOME FOR KOMENSKY GRADS

Votova, Shonka and Kotouc Will Return for Alumni Day.

In connection with the plans for "home-coming" week, the Komensky Club will give a reception to its alumni members and old grads of the Bohemian department. The social will be held Saturday evening at the clubhouse, 1439 R street. Prominent among the alumnae are Votova, last year's Ivy day orator; Shonka, the football star, and Kotouc, who has been prominent in securing favorable legislation for the University. —Fuzz.

How many men will Nebraska have on the All-Missouri Valley team this year? Last year seven Huskers stood in the front ranks with the other four honorably mentioned. From all indications they may be able to repeat the trick again this year, although Missouri and Ames have some stellar performers.

Thompson Visits Department.

City Superintendent Thompson of Orchard, Neb., was a visitor in the botany department Saturday. For several years Mr. Thompson has been greatly interested in the plants of Nebraska and especially in the trees of his neighborhood.
