

TEAR UP FRESHMAN

JAYHAWKERS IMPROVE IN YESTERDAY'S SCRIMMAGE.

LINE STILL PUZZLES COACHES

One End and Tackle Position Filled,
But Rest Is Matter of Conjecture
—No Man Found to Boot
the Ball.

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 12.—(Special to the Daily Nebraskan, by E. B. Hackney.)—J. Pluvius, backed by a cold norther, came out to hinder the Jayhawkers in their practice last night, but his worst efforts were of no avail. Practice was held as per schedule and the Kansas warriors went through a stiff scrimmage against the Bond hopefuls in a cold, drizzling rain.

If anything the Kansas team showed up slightly better in practice. The same squad of freshman was out as on the preceding night, and all of them put up a stiffer defense than ever before.

On the offense the varsity backs ripped big holes in the line and were able to make big gains. Both Coolidge and Parker appear to be the probable starters of the game in the backfield.

Line Problem Unsolved.

The line, however, still remains a mystery. Bramwell was shifted back to tackle again and his position was turned over to Hatcher, who has been out of the game on account of his injuries received in the Drake game. Milton was used again on the opposite end from that occupied by Captain Brownlee. He showed up unusually well against the freshman and may prove to be the logical man for this position. In addition to being a sure tackler, he is pretty beefy. Weidline, as usual, played well at his position at tackle. In him Coaches Mosse and Frank have a man who can be counted on to break up many of the Cornhusker plays.

The booting problem is still unsolved. No man has arisen to fill this position. Bramwell was given a try, but did not prove satisfactory enough to warrant a change. Maybe some man may be developed in the next two days, but from present prospects the kicking will be left in Burnham's hands.

Defense a Trifle Weak.

The defense was not as strong as usual, and Bottomley and Russell went through for long gains. The freshman used some of the Nebraska plays and the varsity failed to solve the majority of them. Both ends played a good game and most of the end runs were stopped with no gain.

Toward the close of practice the varsity's tackling improved and instead of the usual mild tactics the Jayhawkers displayed some real tackling, the kind where one is good, but two is better, in stopping a runner.

Meet Me At Rally

Where'll you be next Friday morn- Oh, the joy which comes from ing.

From 11 o'clock till noon? In a bunch with husky throat
Let's go over to the Chapel. While the Uni Hand is playing,
Learn to sing a football tune. While we're getting K. U.'s goats.

Got a class? Say, you're a dead Will be greater far, I tell you, one. Than from sitting in your room.

Read the Rag and learn the news. Be a rooter. You're down-hearted?
All the classes are excused then. Rooting, kid, will chase Old
Now you can not well refuse. Gloom.

Don't like football? Oh, you piker. So put on your bright red sweater, Take your eyes from books a Bring cough drops and mega-while— phone.

Be a booster. Get some "pep," bo. For we're going to beat old Kansas Change that frown, kid, for a Or we'll lose our happy home.
smile.

I'll be waiting at the entrance;
We'll be champs soon of the Valley.
You'll be there? Good sport, that's sure sense,
If you meet me at the rally.

HARRY BURTIS.

THIRSTY FOR BLOOD

CORNHUSKER SQUAD, IN FINE TRIM, AWAITS COMING FRAY.

BEST CONDITION OF SEASON

Purdy Continues to Improve and May Play Saturday—Beck, Harmon, and Swanson Do Star Work in Practice.

The Cornhusker machine appeared in its best working form of the season last night. Five touchdowns tell the tale of the evening's scrimmage with the freshmen. The varsity quarterbacks could have opened up on many of the new plays if it had been necessary, but it was not necessary.

Every one of the squad was out last night for practice, and with the exception of Purdy were able to get into the scrimmage. The slashy halfback will not be kept out of Saturday's game if his injury improve as it has the last couple days.

Beck, who has been filling the vacancy in the backfield, has been playing a brand of ball that deserves him mention. His great interference in the scrimmage has been very instrumental in the scoring. His work, together with the classy exhibition, has gained many yards for the regulars.

Harmon Shows Up Well.

Harmon, too, has proved himself to be a good ground gainer. His run of early seventy yards last night brought many of the fans to their feet. Swanson, who is now playing the other tackle, is a good running mate for Harmon. These two should add many yards to the Nebraska gain next Saturday.

Every indication seems to show that the Cornhuskers will have an easy time of it Saturday. The Kansas machine has been working very poorly so far this season, but the chances are that they will spring a few surprises when they meet the Huskers.

There are quite a few seats for sale, but they will not last long. Both the north and south grandstands have been reserved and are pretty well sold out. Manager Reed has several men at work erecting temporary bleachers at both ends of the field, so that an extra large crowd can be accommodated.

Plans for Banquet.

More than 100 "old grads" have signified their intention of attending the big "home-coming" banquet after the Kansas-Nebraska game. The "feed" will be held at the Lincoln Hotel. Tickets may be secured of Secretary G. W. Kline at 721 First National Bank building.

SOPHOMORE HAS APPENDICITIS.

Biba Seriously Ill—Operation May Be Necessary.

William Biba of Exeter, a sophomore in the Engineering College, is dangerously ill at Dr. Everett's Hospital. He is suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis and an operation is thought necessary. —Fuzz.

STATUE SUBSCRIPTIONS POUR IN SOPH PRE-OLYMPIC RALLY

Money Necessary Seems to Be Obtained Quickly and With Little Urging.

Subscriptions to the Komensky statue fund are pouring in rapidly from all over the country. Several hundred brief statements were sent out to the Bohemian organizations of the middle west last Saturday. More than 10 per cent of these have responded in the last couple of days, with letters of encouragement as well as substantial additions to the fund. The Bohemian fraternal societies and lodges of Nebraska are lending their support to the movement. The "Osveta" and "Pokrok," two Omaha papers in the Bohemian language, are giving the scheme much publicity through the medium of their columns. Miss Hrbek predicts that no trouble will be experienced in securing the total amount, $2,500, in a short time, and feels highly elated over the success of her plans. —Fuzz.

NOVEMBER AGRICULTURE OUT.

Farm Monthly Makes Its Regular Appearance.

The November issue of Agriculture, the monthly publication of the College of Agriculture, is in the hands of its subscribers. It is a well-written magazine, containing articles on all the different phases of farm life and work. Beside these, there are exchanges and parts devoted to the School of Agriculture. A prominent part in the papers given to the accounts of the dairy and stock judging teams and their work. —J. R. W.

Mammoth Meeting Planned for Today in the Temple—Olympic Team Waiting for Saturday's Mix.

A number of further candidates appeared yesterday aspiring to places on the sophomore Olympic team, and bringing hopes of their fellows several notches higher. The team is now complete and awaiting the freshmen, and all that remains is to get out a sufficient number of huskies and otherwise to overcome the freshmen in the mix—at least so the sophomores claim. The unconquerable fault of overconfidence is not affecting them in spite of appearances, and they are planning to go into the battle with their eyes opened to the task ahead of them.

The rally today, following the regular convocation, is to bring out all the spirit which has been pent up since the victory over the class of 1914 last year, and a program, liberally interspersed with predictions, warnings, directions, and yells, will be waiting for the crowd which is expected. A rumor has gained ground among some students that the sophomore class is a trifle weary this year, and that the freshmen will have a runaway Saturday. The purpose of the rally is to combat this idea. Sophomores taking stock in it are requested to stay away. The rally will be held in the Temple Theater at 11:30, and if necessary an overflow meeting can be arranged for.

Freshmen Notice.

All candidates for the freshman class football team meet in the gymnasium at 11 o'clock today. Come prepared to practice. All men who can not be at this meeting meet in the gymnasium at 3:50 o'clock.