

MUST PUT UP FIGHT

NEITHER CLASS TO TAKE OLYMPICS WITHOUT STRUGGLE.

FRESHMEN FEAR DIRE PENALTY

Much Good Material Being Brought Out to Champion 1916—Sophs Keep Plans and Teams Secret and Give Out Bear Stories.

The day set for the Olympics will soon be here, and yet there seems to be but little commotion in the ranks of the opposing factions. As yet there has been no skirmishes between the scouting parties of the opposing armies, no one has been taken in ambush and made a prisoner by a party of the enemy, no spies have been detected within the enemy's lines, and no trace of arsenic can be found in the army beans of either camp.

The freshmen have been displaying considerable enthusiasm in taking hold of matters and have been developing some excellent material, but the soph camp remains quiet and none of their deep-laid plans have been divulged to outsiders. They can not be induced by the most princely bribes to part with any information as to their plans for the meet.

One thing, however, is certain. The sophs will have to "go some" if they vanquish the "frosh" in this meet. The green material which was ushered into the University early in the fall has become seasoned by discipline of the cadet regiment and by the absorption of Nebraska spirit and have developed into a fighting bunch that is not to be treated with disdain. In addition to this, they have become acquainted with one another and will stick together as closely as the sophomores. If the sophs think they are going to have an easy victory, or a victory of any sort, they may find themselves sadly mistaken, for it is a question whether they with their experience will be able to conquer the freshman fighting spirit.

This promises to be the biggest and best of all Nebraska's Olympics, and it would be a crime for anyone, no matter how badly "stung by the mid-semester, to work in lab or study upon next Saturday morning. There will be plenty of opportunities for the fuser at the meet, and the presence of numerous upper classmen and rows of co-ed enthusiasts will be necessary if the day of the Olympics be accorded its true dignity as one of Nebraska's greatest gala days.

SOPHOMORE HOP.

With almost all of the tickets for the sophomore hop already disposed of, a well-appointed dance is assured. As the result of the success of the ticket sale Chairman Swift has gone ahead with the arrangements on a scale more elaborate than is usually possible.

The demand for tickets has been so great that the committee has decided not to hold tickets later than Monday for students who have spoken for them but have not yet paid their money. After that time any tickets ordered but not claimed will be sold to other students who desire to attend the last big dance before the Thanksgiving vacation.

Coach Hartwell is putting the Aggies through fast and heavy practice in preparation for the Aurora game next Friday. The team is coming along fine and a good game is expected. The Farm lads want to wipe out the defeat of last Thanksgiving day at Aurora. Several new men are trying out, so that two full teams are in the field.
