

STUDENT DIRECTORY ON SALE OLYMPICS AT FARM FRIDAY

Only Few Changes in Cover Design—
Delayed for Various Reasons—
Selling Out Fast.

The Student Directory has finally made its appearance, and is now on sale at the Temple, University Hall, and the Library. The edition came off the press early Saturday afternoon, and about two hundred copies were disposed of before sundown.

The directory is practically the same as last year, save for a difference in the color of the cover. It includes a complete list of students and faculty, with addresses authenticated by the Registrar. The book sells for 10 cents, which is charged in order to defray the cost of publication. It is published by the Christian Associations, and is edited by J. L. Driscoll and Freda Staff.

An effort was made this year to get the book out early, but the attempts of the managers were repulsed by the local telephone company, who had made a change at the last minute of a majority of the city telephone numbers. Considerable difficulty was also experienced in getting a complete list of names from the Registrar's office on account of the lateness of the agricultural registration.

The demand for the book is keeping the editors busy supplying copies to the students, and at the present rate of sale there will be few left by the time vacation begins Wednesday. Yesterday one hundred copies were taken to the Farm, where they were disposed of to the Ag students, whose names appear in the list. McC.

DEBATE AND DANCE.

Debate in Temple Theater—Dance in Music Hall.

An error made in reporting the date and time of the intercollegiate debate and dance makes it necessary to be again mentioned. The debate will begin at 8 o'clock and last until 9:30, when the dance will begin in the Temple music hall. A 50-cent ticket admits you to the debate and dance. This is the last dance before Christmas vacation.

All Four Classes Meet in Legitimized Scrap, to Settle Question of Supremacy.

Next Friday afternoon has been set aside as "Olympic Day" at the State Farm. The classes have been scrapping over the freshman colors, so Principal Bradford settled upon this as the best way to settle the matter.

The list of events, in order, is as follows:

100-yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440-yard dash, broad and high jumps—all with two men from each of the four classes competing.

In the boxing match, with one entry from each class, the juniors meet the seniors, the freshmen the sophomores, and the winners meet the winners.

Five men from each class, meeting in the order given above, will take part in the tug-of-war; in the wrestling two men will represent each class.

The scrap will not be a general mix, as that of the campus Olympics, but will be a contest between two sets of twelve men, the winners to meet the winners for the championship. Six men from the freshman class meet six from the sophs in a twelve-foot ring, each struggling to put the other class out of the ring. The seniors and juniors will have a similar scrap of their own at the same time. H.
