

MRS. JOHN HASTIE PASSES AWAY

Former Nebraskan, Phi Beta Kappa and Member of L. H. S. Faculty Dies at Grand Rapids.

The sad news has just been received of the death of Mrs. John Hastie at her home in Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Hastie was formerly Miss Mabel Cleveland and graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors in the class of 1899. She taught in L. H. S. until her marriage in 1901 and had a wide circle of friends who will feel her loss as a personal one.

Hon. Rough House Are Too Much.

Hon. Ed.: I tak Hon. Penninhand for sake of borrowing inflammation on I subject, Towitly: "why are Spirit?"

Last P. M. while I am propelling down streetward, I deserve large crowding of Gents which are regressing closely upward. Pretty quick those sidewalk come upward & then 26 Gents make stepping on my Hon. Letfear. I receive also some blacking on Hon. Eyebrow and those collar become dirty which have been wore but I weak. Now Hon. Ed. of course I are not angry, howev when anybody act thusly to me it sometime make me pretty peevisn. When again I descend upward to Hon. Feet once more, I am pretty homesick in Hon. Stomick & those Roughhouse have gone down streetward.

"What are this, anyhow—Hon. Steamroller?" I sadly renig. "Nay, noy" I am replied, "Just Hon. Class-spirit."

Now Hon. D. Webster in These Dictionary interject that spirits are liquor which produce Intoxication." Now I perceive why those gents were so rude to Yours Truly.

There are also I Gent which look like he have forgot to take off Hon. Clothe when he tak Showerbathing. Somebody infuse this look like old-fashioned spirits, howev it smell like Hon. Sulphur water to Yours Truly.

Yet this also are not all. In Hons Chipple Those Prof. expound that spirit are O. K., if not indulged in too strongly. Now these are too muchly. I became hugely shock & became gashly pail with whiteness' I refrain, are this right in This Christian Institute of Learn? where there are kid on intoxicaty booze?

If this are not pretty soon cut out I are going to disgustly skldoo, for this are too much for Hon. Minister son.

our Humbly Servant,

TAKO SOKO.

Bender Speaks at Washington.

Nebraska students will be interested to know that Johnny Bender is making a name for himself in the far west as coach of the Pullman Agricultural College. A clipping from the University of Washington Daily mentions the former Nebraska football player in very respectful terms, and speaks of the efforts that the students there made to get him to address them prior to their annual game with the Pullman team.

FARM NOTES

The Sophomore class at the Farm held a short class meeting Wednesday at noon.

Convocation at the University Farm will be spent today in a gold old "song fest," with the school songs featured.

The chorus of the Farm, which has been recently organized under the direction of Mrs. Raymond, will deliver a number of Christmas carols at convocation December 17.

The School of Agriculture Juniors at their last class meeting decided to wear blue and white stocking caps as the class insignia this year. They are also planning to have a combined social and dance in the first part of January.

The house administration class of the Farm visited the art gallery at the city campus yesterday afternoon and were given a very interesting lecture by Miss Hayden. After this visit the girls made a trip through the rooms of the State Historical Society.

The mid-semester grades of the school are now entered in the books, and it is found that a very small percentage less than some previous years of the students have been doing below passing work.

Delinquent students have been warned by Principal Bradford of their perilous condition and they are given a certain amount of time before the next semester in which to work off their conditions.

The Aggies concluded their football season with a fine game at Ashland on Thanksgiving day, winning from the high school lads by a score of 19-18.

The results of the games they have played this year are:

Weeping Water, 25; Aggies, 0.
Cotner, 0; Aggies, 6.
Aurora, 18; Aggies, 12.
University Place, 13; Aggies, 13.
Ashland, 18; Aggies, 19.

This gives the season's totals as follows: Aggies, 50; opponents, 71.

This is a much better record than was made last year.—H.
