On account of the Ophellions' large membership they meet every Friday evening. The Davissons hold their meeting every other Frida evening.

The Farm has two literary societies, the Davisson and the Ophellion. Both societies are well established, each having in the neighborhood of 100 members at the present time.

At the first meeting of the Davisson H. R. Day was elected president and Marie Trott secretary. At the first meeting of the Ophellions W. A. Rogers was elected president and Martha Arnold secretary.

At a recent meeting of the Ophellions the question, "Direct Election of United States Senators" was debated. Ask for cash prize ticket when you Next Friday night the Davissons are going to debate the question of Panama Canal tolls.

Both societies have been very fortunate in securing good musical numbers for their programs, some coming
