ALUMNI HONOR STEIHM

ANNUAL DINNER OF OMAHA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

200 HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER ATTEND

Nebraska Spirit Given a Big Boost by Omaha Alumni and Visiting High School Player Stiehm Given Big Ovation.

residing in and about the metropolis. Twenty-two high schools were represented by their football leter men, all of whom will some day be eligible candidates for admission into te University. With this idea in mind no efforts were spared to spared to show them a good time. Nebraska spirit was at high pitch at all times, and before the evening was over they had received an impression of the University that will live, for some time to come.

The banquet was a cabaret entertainment and more than succeeded in creating an uproar of enthusiasm. The professional talent that had been furnished by the Omaha theaters outdid themselves in trying to please while the chef took special pains to serve the best that there was in the land.

Coach Stiehm and Nebraska's foot ball men occupied positions of honor and as each member thereof was called upon to rise and show himself to the audience he was greeted with applause and the customary three cheers. Old timers such as Buck Beltzer, Frank Johnson, Jim Harvey, Dean Ringer, Harry Tukey, Chick Mc-Laughlin, Louis Harte, Tate Maters, man for the place and Regent Coupand was vigorously applauded when he said in the course of his remarks that "Nebraska athletics were in good hands."

Robert H. Manly, '97, was toast master. The speakers were Mayor James C. Dahlman, Principal V. C. Mays of the Lincoln High School, C. F. Junod, Knox '05, Regent George Coupland, Victor Rosewater, Chancellor Avery, and Coach Stiehm. The 'NNear Quartette" composed of George Johnston, Tate Maters, "Bob' Manly, and George Mac Intyre, all former Nebraska singers furnished a few song bits that made a big hit.

The banquet was engineered and The cause of the University and of financed by the Omaha alumni of the Nebraska athletics especially was University, no financial help being segiven a decided and enthusiastic cured or solicited from any outside boost Wednesday evening at the source. It was as thorough a Nebrasannual dinner given by the Omaha ka afair as it could be made and re-Alumni association in honor of Coach flected great credit on the men who Stiehm and his versity football play-)were behind it. REITZEL WILL NOT BE BACK

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Suffers Nervous Breakdown During Vacation and Is Very Slowly Improving.

Secretary Raymond Reitzel of the University Y. M. C. A., has been detained at his home in Sterling, Ill., on account of serious illness in the nature of a nervous breakdown. As a result of his illness he will be unable to continue his work at Nebraska this year. At a joint meeting of the advisory board and the cabinet held recently, resolutions were drawn up expressing their sympathy for him and his unfortunate condition. The organization which he has effected so far this year will continue to carry out the policies already outlined.

Reitzel was taken sick during the Christmas vacation and it was thought he might be able to resume his work, but later reports showed that this would be impossible.
