SELECT AUDIENCE AT "666"

Theatre Party Given By Hoffman and Raber of Engineering College To Professors and Wives a Big Affair.

RECOGNIZED BY GALLERY GODS

Prof. J. D. Hoffman and B. F. Raber entertained a large party of friends at a theatre party at the Oliver on Thursday evening. There were about fifteen couples, most of whom were professors of the University and their wives. Among them were Dean and Mrs. Bessey, Dean and Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Avery.

The entry of this dignified body caused quite as much amusement to the large delegation of students in the "box" as the comic entanglements of Oliver 666 later in the evening. They were greeted by a shout of recognition and sat during the performance under the critical eyes of their class students. It is hoped that their hilarious behavior did not set any bad example to the gallery gods, but only served to prove that even professors are human.

The entrance of Coach Stiehm a little later brought forth another round of cheers and Jumbo was forced to wave a greeting to those above.

ALEXIS LECTURES ON SCHOOLS.

Takes Place of Professor Frandsen on Scandinavian Club Program.

The Scandinavian club held its monthly meeting last night at the Temple. Professor Frandsen who was to have given a lecture was unable to be present. The program was filled by Professor Alexis who gave a stereopticon lecture on the Scandinavian institutions of learning and other subjects of interest to the students.

It was decided to devote a half hour of each program to a free discussion of Scandinavian current events.

The lecture by Professor Frandsen will be put on one of the future programs. All Scandinavian students are cordially invited to attend the meetings.
