THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

No tickets for Military ball ordered reserved will be held after Saturday

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet will meet tonight at 60'clock, at the Temple. All members of the cabinet should be present.

arrangements at once with Mrs. Tuck- is possible is due largely to the busier, at the St. George Studio, for individual pictures for Cornhusker. Football suits will be at the studio. C. G. BECK.

C. A. would greatly appreciate it if the students whose subscriptions come due on or before January 1st would co-operate with the committee of articles of uniform excellence. by dropping in at the secretary's office at their earliest convenience.

There will be a meeting of the Interclass debating board in Professor ings," by C. A. Bennet, '12. Fogg's office, U 206, Thursday evening at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of choosing the question for the interclass debates. All members be present.

> HARVEY W. HESS. Chairman Junior Committee.

RIFLE SHOOTS ARE HELD

Contests With Missouri and Minnesota Are Held at Long Distance-Scores Below Stangard .

As a result of the initial shoot of the Rifle team last night, the following scores were made:

Against Minnesota, total 778.

Against Missouri, total 795. Two teams of five men each, shot, each man shooting from the standing and from positions. The results were said to be below standard. The next SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM shoot wil take place next week.

Hagensick's Orchestra, Auto B-2990.

Jones' Orchestra. Phone L-8605.

The Acacia fraternity announces the pledging of Russell W. Gentzler, of 1913, from 7 to 8, the "Verein Ger-Gothenburg, Neb.

BLUE PRINT OUT FRIDAY.

Engineering Publication Will Be On Sale On Day Announced In Spite of Many Difficulties Encountered.

The Blue Print has been in the hands of the printer for some time and will be out, as previously an-Will all varsity football men make nounced, on Friday, Jan. 17. That this ness manager, E. J. Kraus, Notwithstanding the many difficulties encountered, the publication will be out on time

George N .Carter is editor-in-chief, The finance committee of the Y. M. and Glen Walker, H. B. Wright and L. C. Lichty, are associate editors of the engineering publication. Carter and his asociates have assembled a series

> This number of the Blue Print will contain more than 100 pages. Some of the articles are as follows:

"Patents and Patent Office Draw-

"Continuous Girder Design," by H. B. Pearse, '12, and Carl Rohwer, '12.

"Some Relations of the Engineer to Society,' by Col. H. H. Prout, vicepresident of the Union Switch and Signal Co.

"The Birdwood Power Project," by J. C. Hogue, '10.

Professor O. J. Ferguson contributed two articles: "One's Future Work' and "Vacations." Clarenc Mayer has an article on construction-cost data, and E. R. Wiggins contributes "The Tractor,-A Field for Investigation." The subscription price of the Blue Print is $1.00 per year. Fifty cents in addition to the twenty-five cents already paid by those who have subscribed will be all that is necessary to secure the first number. The remaining twenty-five cents is payable when the second issue is received, which will be late in the next semester.

German Club Has Arranged for Music At Meeting on Wednesday.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 15, mania" will hold a meeting in the

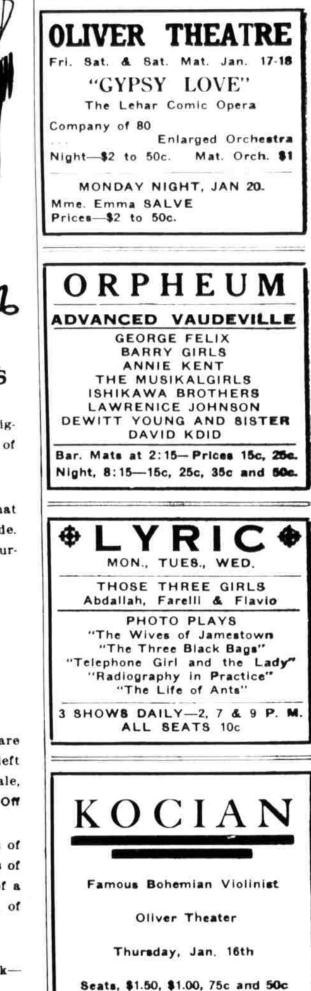

¢1.50	Omnes	3		1	٥.		• •		10
2.00	Shirts		5			3	-	1	40
2.50	Shirts	14		•				1	85
3.00	Shirts				*			2	15
3.50	Shirts		4		•			2	65

In Suits and O'Coats, we are closing out the broken lines left from our general clearance sale,

All sizes, prices and grades of our high quality stock-scores of lines where but one or two of a kind remain, now at just 1/4 of the original price.

Take time to come and lookit will certainly pay you!

THEATRES

at Oliver Box Office.

