

BASKET BALL BITS

The Freshmen basketball squad meets the fast Lincoln High five tonight in the Armory at 8:00 o'clock. This is the second game that the Freshmen have played, aside from their nightly tussles with the Varsity, and the "hopefuls" are laying plans to bring down the Scarlet and Black in a real exhibition of basketball. The first half of the game will probably be played by college rules, and the rest by high school, or conference, rules.

To date Minnesota has shown excellent form and unless the Cornhusker squad puts up an exceedingly fast game Saturday night, the chances are that Minnesota will maintain her supremacy.

The Ames Aggies returned from their first trip abroad with a poor records, Washington and Missouri capturing two games each. Drake however, succumbed to the Farmers' superior basket shooting.

The Kansas Aggies bid fair to put a crimp in some of the other Missouri Valley teams' aspirations for championship honors if they maintain the brilliant form they have exhibited up to date.

The K. U. "five" are laying in wait for the Cornhusker quintet for fair. Having lost two games last year by a hair and tying the Huskers the year before for the championship of the valley, they have a hunch 'tis their time for the coveted title.

ADDITIONAL CAMPUS NOTES

Dr. J. H. Powers will speak at All Souls' church Sunday at 12:15, to students on "Most Valuable Recent Contribution of Zoological Science To Human Knowledge."

Jay Rinker, '10, recently passed the examinations of the California State Pharmacy Board and is now managing a pharmacy at Lindsay, Calif. Mr. Rinker was one of the first class to graduate from the Nebraska School of Pharmacy.

Notices were posted on the bulletin boards of the campus yesterday afternoon announcing the tryouts for the Kosmet Club Opera. The tryouts will take place Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, February 4 and 5, in the Temple Theatre and are open to all University students.

Owing to a misunderstanding between the dean of women and a representative of the Daily Nebraskan, a number of parties have been announced in the last few weeks and Tuesday, in particular, as given by Alpha Phi. These are in part rushing stunts, a like number of which are being given by each sorority and partially were clerical errors.
