The Forum

To the Daily Nebraskan:

During the last few months a great deal has been said for and against unl-Managing Editor Kenneth M. Snyder versity removal. Many have assumed John L. Cutright that the students of the institution were all in favor of having the uni-.Chandler Trimble versity removed to the State Farm. I for one do not believe this to be true for I believe the majority are not ad verse to the home extension policy

The question as to the desirability of either plan is one of great importance for its solution will either have a beneficial or a detrimental effect on Night Phone-B-4204 our institution for many years to come. It deals with a policy that will be a life policy, therefore should be Nebraska, as second-class mail matter, considered very carefully. One should under the Act of Congress of March 3, always remember that this university Is no alien university but it is are own. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1913 hence great care should be taken in the solving of this question.

As a student of this university and a citizen of the state of Nebraska l maintain that home extension is the only logical plan for

1. Students must live in close proxlimity to their school work. This is absolutely necessary where a student carries both forenoon and afternoon work; for example, a student working in an up town office would be unable to go to and from classes without great inconvenience if the university was removed to State Farm.

2. Removal would tend towards seclusion from the outer world, which would have a harmful instead of a beneficial effect. The future great university should be the very center of life; down among the world of affairs and industry, and not in an atmosphere of seclusion. Students should live among people of affairs, people whem they most come in contact with The facts we can gather about a in after life and not be forced into certain sheet called "The Common narrowing dormitory existence. Give Rumor," are exceedingly few. Osten them the practical experience during sibly, it is a fountain of residuary en their college days. Prepare them for lightment; that is, it professes to tell life. School life is not as some seem to what the other ten or twelve papers imagine, a picnic, pink tea, beer spree, of Lincoln do not tell. Really, its pur or a cigarette luncheon but should be pose is twofold: first, to perpetuate an and is a part of real life, hence it Illustrious name; second, to supple should exist under ideal conditions so ment The Daily Nebraskan. However as to make such preparation possible laudable may be its designs, authority Such conditions could not exist were found. It has been publicly decried 3. Opportunity for self support is main Lincoln High School as a sheet tertally lessened by removal. These without any official sanction whatso self supporting students are certainly ever. It professes to publish trust-gaining a insight into real life which worthy University news. But where is worth to many of them nearly as it acquires title to a field already legi-much as their school courses. School timately occupied by The Student Pub | training without this training will be lication Board is a mystery to us. We at least a partial failure. Put yourself sound in time this short warning in the poor student's place who often against a sheet which is clearly carved has not the price of two street car tickets. What would you want? We should help him all we can for upon The board of regents of Sewanee these very men rests the future of oar state.
